George & Charlotte's Big Day!

July 20, 2015

People

8 CELEB WEDDINGS!

Mila & Ashton, Vanessa Williams, Billy Joel & more

Kourtney & Scott's BREAKUP

How his 'embarrassing' antics drove her away

BEN & JEN

WHY THEY SPLIT

'She loved him,' says a friend, 'but there comes a time when you have to say enough is enough'

The Real Story

MAYBE SHE'S BORN WITH IT. MAYBE IT'S MAYBELLINE.®

Adriana is wearing New The Blushed Nudes Palette from Maybelline® New York. ©2015 Maybelline LLC.

GO NUDE.
NEW THE blushed NUDES PALETTE
Our newest 12-shade collection in rosy gold tones, curated to create infinite looks.
THE blushed NUDES
MAYBELLINE NEW YORK
L'OREAL
NEW YORK

Chatter

For July 20, 2015

'No one living in this century should stand behind so much ignorance.'

—SHAKIRA, responding to Donald Trump's anti-immigration presidential platform, on Twitter

'The most complicated thing is filling out the form. . . . I can't imagine why anyone wouldn't want to do that.'

—BRADLEY COOPER, on the importance of registering to be a bone-marrow donor (DeleteBloodCancer.org)

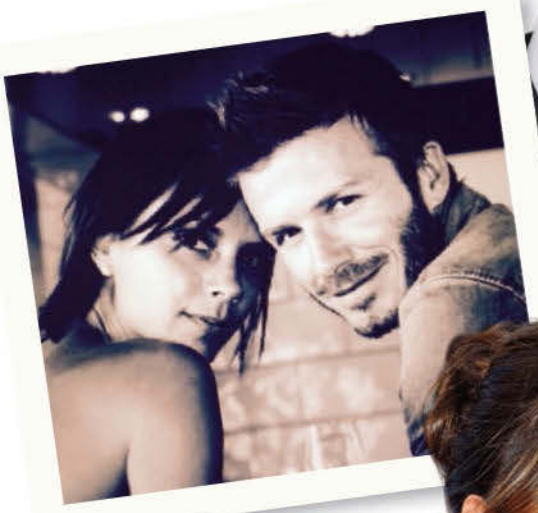

'I don't want to have to deny my sexuality in order to be me. But I don't want to have to be defined by it.'

—AMBER HEARD, on coming out as bisexual in Hollywood

'My son and my husband are the greatest thing that happened to me.'

—KELLY ROWLAND, calling husband Tim Weatherspoon and 8-month-old son Titan her "No. 1 priority"

'16 years ago today was our special day. . . . Thank you for giving me our amazing little ones.'

—DAVID BECKHAM, celebrating his wedding anniversary with wife Victoria, on Instagram

'I want to be the female George Clooney. He directs, produces and stars. I want to be in charge of the final product.'

—EVA LONGORIA, on her growing career aspirations

Q & A

Ryan Reynolds

The actor, 38, stars in the sci-fi thriller* Self/less (in theaters) and Woman in Gold *(on DVD now)

What was the strangest thing about playing a dying billionaire who pays to take over a younger guy's body to live longer?

When we were shooting the film, a couple of obscenely wealthy people asked, "Can I buy that? Can I do that?"

Would you ever do something that drastic to live longer?

Absolutely not. Just one trip around is fine with me.

What's it like working with legends like Ben Kingsley in Self/less and Helen Mirren in Woman in Gold?

He's an imposing force. The guy is like a skin-covered thermonuclear reactor. And she's truly one of a kind and not hard to fall in love with.

How were your fight scenes in Self/less?

I'm right at that age where I'll do as many takes as they want, but I'm lying on the ground after each one thinking, "Oh God. Just get up and get up fast. Don't let them see you [in pain]."

—BY K.C. BAKER

(SHAKIRA) IMAGESPACE INC/SPLASH NEWS; (HEARD) WLF/SPLASH NEWS; (REYNOLDS) SLAVEN VLASIC/GETTY IMAGES; (COOPER) DIMITRIOS KAMBOURIS/GETTY IMAGES; (LONGORIA) GEORGE PIMENTEL/WIREIMAGE; (ROWLAND) BRYAN STEFFY/GETTY IMAGES

Come together

SEASON PREMIERE

JULY 12 SUNDAYS 10PM

WATCH IT. STREAM IT. GET IT. GO TO SHO.COM

SHOWTIME

Here comes the sun.
And powerful protection for everyone.

Neutrogena®

#1 DERMATOLOGIST RECOMMENDED SUNCARE

©Neutrogena Corp. 2015
Use as directed.

July 20, 2015 • Vol. 84 • No. 3

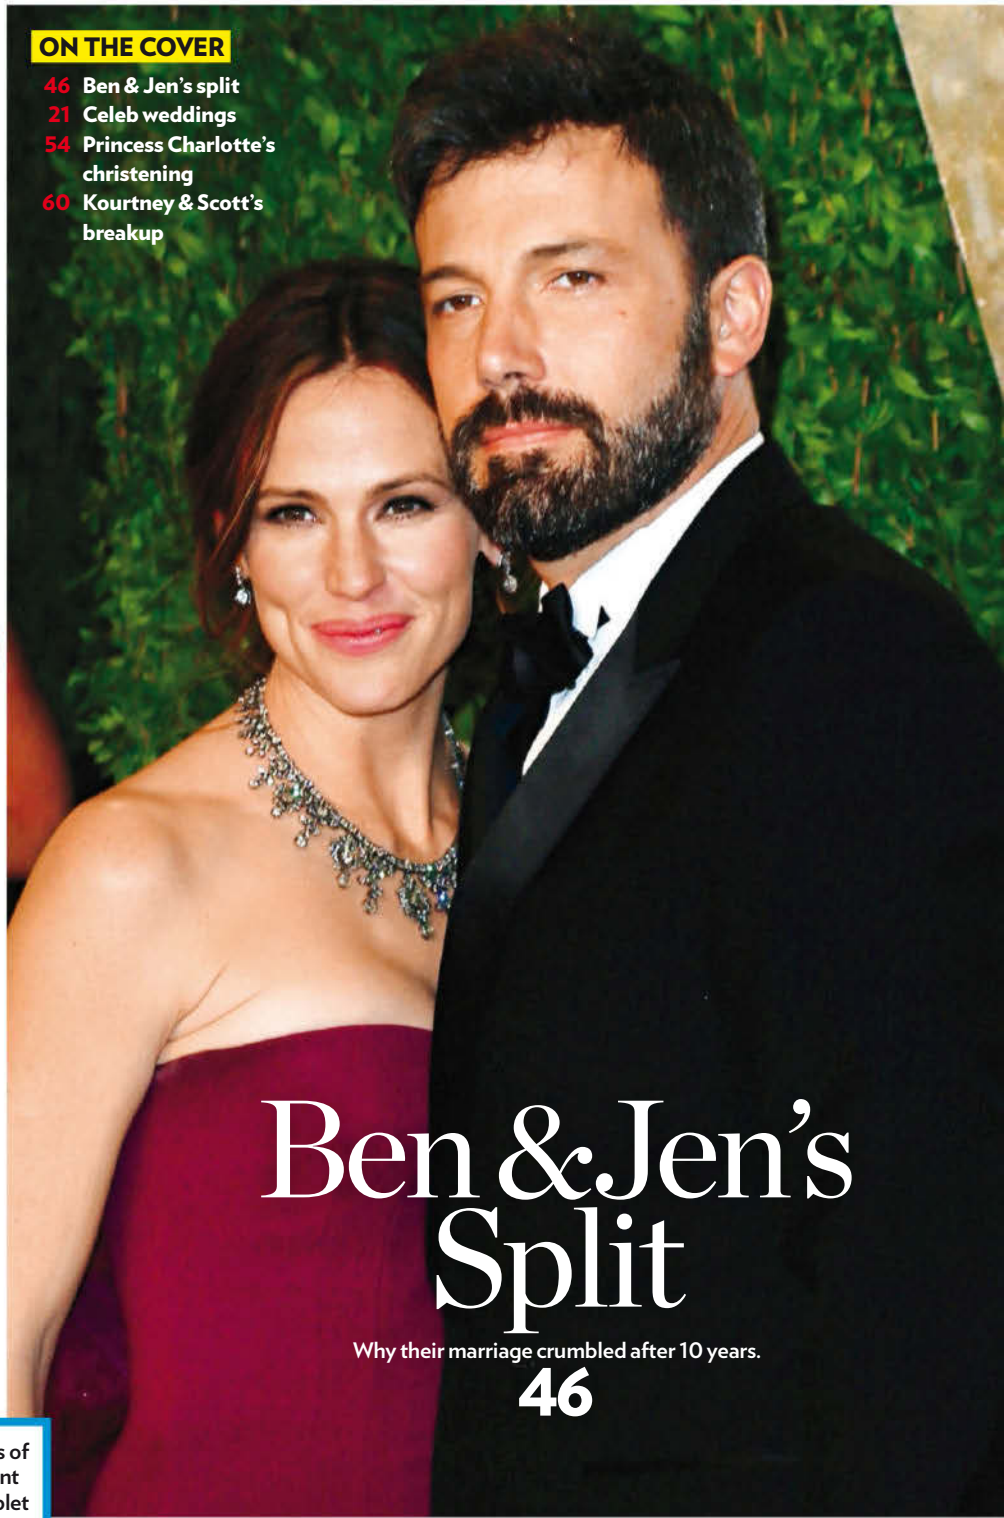

Contents

18
Style Tracks
Lupita Nyong'o stunned in a scarlet mini at the Dior Haute Couture show in Paris.

ON THE COVER

46 Ben & Jen's split
21 Celeb weddings
54 Princess Charlotte's christening
60 Kourtney & Scott's breakup

Ben & Jen's Split

Why their marriage crumbled after 10 years.

46

There's loads of extra content on all our tablet editions. Find out more at people.com/ontablet

ON THE COVER Photograph by Larry Busacca/NBC/NBCU Photo Bank. Top insets, from left: Alpha Press/Ad Media; Chris Jackson/WPA Pool/AP; left insets, clockwise from top left: Axelle/Bauer-Griffin/FilmMagic; Frazer Harrison/Getty Images; Dan Hallman/Invision/AP; Bryan Steffy/Getty Images

FROM LEFT: REX/SHUTTERSTOCK; DAVID LIVINGSTON/GETTY IMAGES

Contents

66
Ugly Betty star Vanessa Williams marries businessman Jim Skrip in an Egyptian-themed celebration.

Plus 7 More Celeb I Dos!
17 Tyler Hubbard & Hayley Stommel
21 Ashton Kutcher & Mila Kunis, Billy Joel & Alexis Roderick, Kim Coles & Reggie Mckiver, Tim Lopez & Jenna Reeves, James Wolk & Elizabeth Jae Byrd, Matt Dallas & Blue Hamilton

64
The U.S. Women's soccer team brings home the World Cup after 16 long years.

21 SCOOP Mila Kunis and Ashton Kutcher tie the knot, and Caitlyn Jenner shares what her new life is like. Plus: the reason Real Housewife Ramona Singer's marriage to husband Mario collapsed

60 After nine years and three children together, reality stars Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick have called it quits

68 Despite having a rare condition that has whittled her down to 94 lbs., 32-year-old former model Lisa Brown continues to fight for a cure

73 Cassidy Gifford—Kathie Lee and Frank's daughter—opens up about her first leading role

Hannah Hart's Watermelon Margarita.

ALSO IN THIS ISSUE

CHATTER....2
MAILBAG....8
STAR TRACKS....10
STYLE TRACKS....18
SCOOP....21
PASSAGES....30
PEOPLE PICKS....33
GREAT IDEAS....76
PUZZLER....90
SECOND LOOK....92
STYLE WATCH....95
BEAUTY WATCH....96
ONE LAST THING....98

54
The royals celebrate Princess Charlotte's christening.

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: BRIAN HATTON; CHRIS JACKSON/WPA POOL/GETTY IMAGES; AMANDA MARSALIS; MIKE HEWITT/FIFA/GETTY IMAGES

©2015 Garnier LLC.
#1 TREATMENT*
RESIST FRIZZ
STAY INTENSELY SMOOTH
GARNIER
FRUCTIS
SLEEK & SHINE
INTENSELY SMOOTH
LEAVE-IN CONDITIONING CREAM
24 HR
Frizzy, Dry, Unmanageable Hair
SLEEK & SHINE
Treatment with Ultra-smoothing
Argan Oil from Morocco & Apricot Oil
Resist frizz, stay smooth and shiny even in 98% humidity
GARNIER
THE STRENGTH TO SHINE
*Source: 2014 & YTD 2015 w/e 4/19 IRI Dollar and Units Sales
In a frizz test when using Garnier Fructis Sleek & Shine system of shampoo, conditioner, and leave-in conditioner vs. a non-conditioning shampoo garnierusa.com

MailBag

For July 13, 2015

Rare photos offer new insight into the lives of the Kennedys.

'The photos of young Caroline are just precious' Lola via people.com

The Kennedys

The Kennedy family photos remind me of a more innocent time in our nation's history.
Anthony Childson Jr.
Princeton, Texas

I love the way the children were allowed to do childish things, like riding tricycles, despite their grand, historic surroundings. And they had a bird's-eye view of history to boot. It all sounds enchanting.
Bianca Davis via people.com

Gay Marriage

I'm disappointed that you put "Love Wins!" in a tiny space on the top left of your cover. This historic Supreme Court decision, affecting a large number of people and their civil rights, should have been front and center.
Bess Kemp via e-mail

Bree Newsome

That awesome photo of her taking down the Confederate flag deserves to be on the cover of People. She is fierce!
Kitty Curran Asheville, N.C.

Dr. Farid Fata

Disbelief, outrage, sympathy and tears for the victims of Dr. Farid Fata sums up my feelings in reading this horrifying story. As a uterine cancer survivor, I know first-hand of the nasty side effects of chemo and radiation. Thank God I had a caring and outstanding doctor! Unfortunately Dr. Fata's patients trusted a cold-blooded, devious monster.
Doris Pickell Madrid, Iowa

My heart goes out to those individuals and families who suffered at the hands of Dr. Fata. Funding needs to be made available for every city to be equipped with an independent patient advocacy center, where patients can learn more about their diagnosis. God bless those affected by Dr. Fata's greed.
Cynthia S. Brown Franklin, Tenn.

Kendra and Hank

Nice to see a couple working things out. Kendra gave forgiveness when so many would have called it quits.
Deb Schlear via e-mail

Correction In the July 13 issue we misstated the year Dick Van Patten was born. Van Patten was born in 1928. People regrets the error.

Get in Touch

Write Letters to the Editor, People, Time & Life Building, Rockefeller Center, New York, NY 10020
E-mail editor@people.com
Fax 212-522-0794
Letters should include the writer's full name, address and daytime phone number and may be edited for clarity and space.
Customer service
Call 1-800-541-9000 or e-mail service@people.customersvc.com

People UPDATE

MOVING FORWARD
Kelley (left) plans to reapply for her medical license after she completes her sentence.

'Kidnapper Mom' Saga Ends

On June 16 Genevieve and Scott Kelley pleaded guilty to misdemeanor charges of custodial interference in front of a New Hampshire judge. The pair disappeared in 2004 with Genevieve's then-8-year-old daughter Mary Nunes after she accused her biological father, Mark Nunes, of sexual abuse. (The state investigated the claims, but Nunes was never charged.) As People reported in its May 25 issue, the Kelleys lived in Central America until Mary's 18th birthday, when the court could no longer force her to reunite with her father. On June 22 Scott, 50, began a five-month prison sentence. Genevieve, 51, will begin a 10-month sentence when Scott is released. "She and Scott very much want to get on with their lives," Genevieve's attorney Alan Rosenfeld told People. "They want the finality."

Follow us on Twitter @people | Like us on Facebook facebook.com/peoplemag | Follow us on Instagram @peoplemag

FROM TOP: MARK SHAW/MPTV; NIGEL PARRY

clinique.com © Clinique Laboratories, LLC

Now, great skin runs in the family.

Clinique Sonic System cleansing brushes. Dermatologist-developed to transform acne-prone skin, men's skin, all skins.

Go Sonic—and get a custom-fit, 10-day skin care starter kit free*.

Right now at Clinique.

*With any Clinique Sonic System purchase. One to a client, please. While supplies last.

CLINIQUE

Allergy Tested. 100% Fragrance Free.

StarTracks

STARS GET WET & WILD!

SPANISH SENSATION

Marbella, Spain, July 3 & 5

Eva Longoria makes 40 look like the new 20 in two bitty bikinis while on vacation.

ACTION FIGURE

Corsica, July 4

Chris Hemsworth proves he's still the Sexiest Man Alive as he paddleboards shirtless on vacation with wife Elsa Pataky.

@taylorswift

"Happy 4th from me, @gigihadid, @marhunt, @britmaack, @serayah and @haimtheband." The pop singer rings in the Fourth in Rhode Island with pals including Ed Sheeran (below).

CLOCKWISE FROM BOTTOM LEFT: FAMEFLYNET; CORDONPRESS/AKM-GSI; AKM-GSI; SARA JAYE WEISS/STARTRAKS; COURTESY KENNY CHESNEY/EB MEDIA PR; FAMEFLYNET; AKM-GSI

MAKING A SPLASH

L.A., July 4

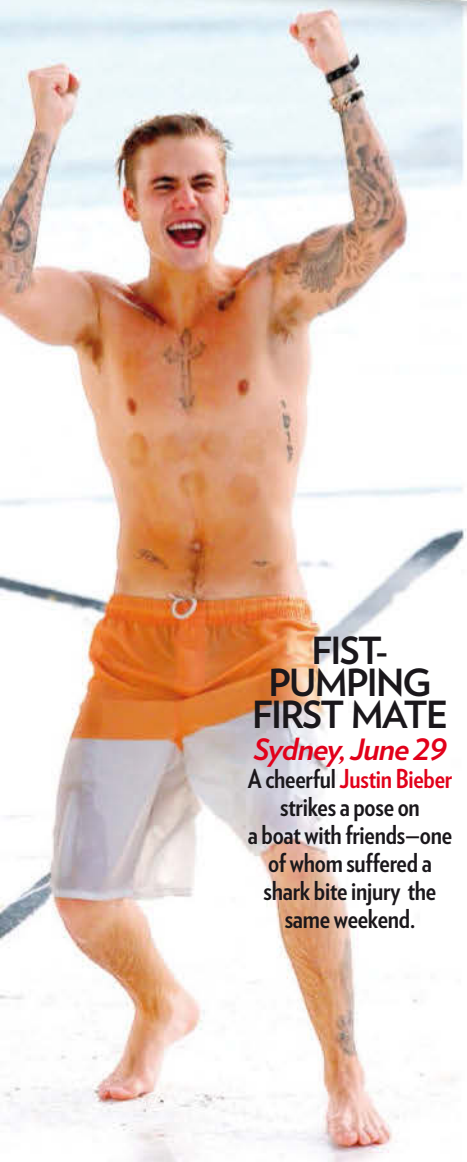

Bella Thorne dresses the part, donning a patriotic swimsuit while goofing around with friends on Independence Day.

SWEET SUMMERTIME

Country music star Kenny Chesney takes in the beautiful clear blue waters as he films the video for his new single "Save It for a Rainy Day" in the Bahamas.

EXCLUSIVE People EXCLUSIVE

FIST-PUMPING FIRST MATE

Sydney, June 29

A cheerful Justin Bieber strikes a pose on a boat with friends—one of whom suffered a shark bite injury the same weekend.

LOUNGE LIZARD

Ibiza, Spain, July 3

American Sniper's Sienna Miller relaxes in a sexy snakeskin-print bikini on a day at the beach with boyfriend Tom Sturridge.

Back in her Mickey ears! Britney Spears celebrates the Fourth of July by flying on the Astro Orbitor during a day at Disneyland in Anaheim, Calif., with her sons.

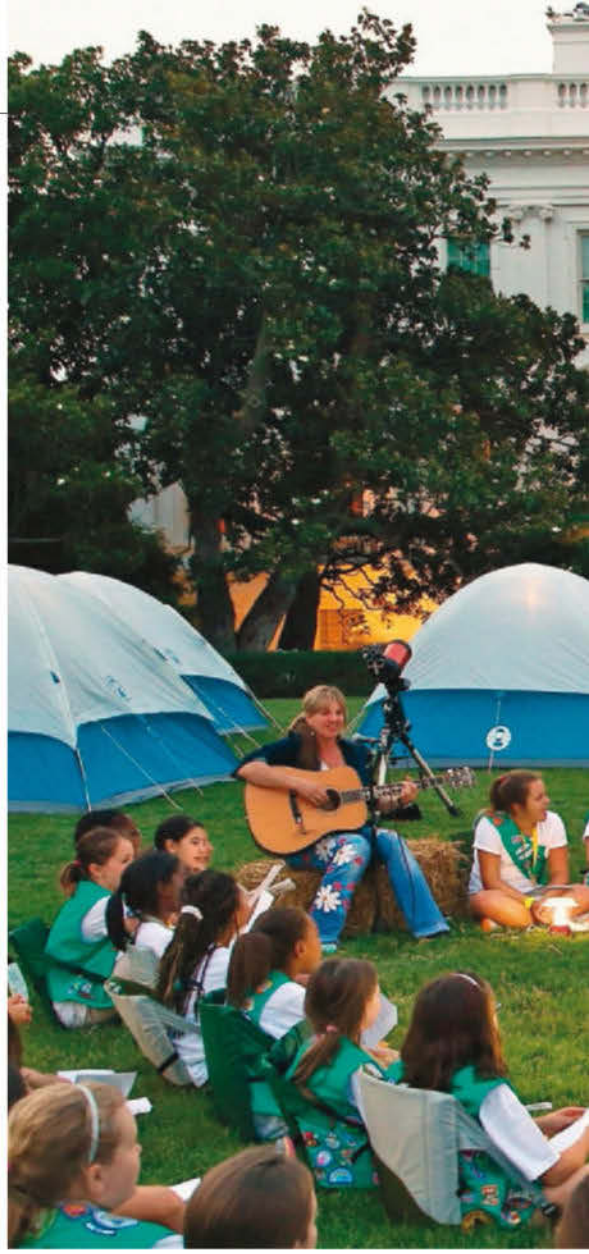

THEME PARK THRILLS!

Tracy Morgan is all smiles—just a year after his horrific car crash—celebrating his daughter Maven's 2nd birthday with fiancé Megan Wollover at Disney World's Magic Kingdom in Lake Buena Vista, Fla.

Still kids at heart! Liv Tyler fetes her 38th birthday by riding the Steeplechase with boyfriend Dave Gardner at Luna Park in Brooklyn's Coney Island.

Simone Kennedy (far left, meeting Bo and Sunny Obama in the East Room), 11, says she got her first sleeping bag for her first—but not last—White House visit: "I want to be the President!"

Growing up in inner-city Chicago, Michelle Obama was never a Girl Scout, let alone a camper. "We lived in an apartment and didn't have air-conditioning . . . so we would sleep on our screened porch," the First Lady tells People. On June 30 she treated 50 Girl Scouts to the campout she always wanted. "You are making history!" she told them, urging families everywhere to play in national parks this summer. President Obama dropped by the lantern "campfire" and joked, "You guys aren't going to make a racket, are you?"

CAMPING OBAMA-STYLE!

First Lady Michelle Obama threw a first-ever White House campout and—from friendship circle to reveille—only People was there

After tent-pitching, Mrs. Obama took five with a troop from Baltimore. "She said she loved my pink hair and wanted to dye her daughter's like mine," giggled Rachael Tyler (top left), 9. As for badges, the First Lady said archery would be a reach: "I'd have a hard time getting Secret Service to let me practice."

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP RIGHT: CHIP SOMODEVILLA/CNP/ZUMA; AMANDA LUCIDON/THE WHITE HOUSE; CHUCK KENNEDY/THE WHITE HOUSE; SPLASH NEWS; CHLOE RICE/DISNEY PARKS/GETTY IMAGES; FERN/SHARPSHOOTER IMAGES

Rick Moranis and Greene in the 1986 film.

SUDDENLY SEYMOUR IS JAKE

Who knew Jake Gyllenhaal could sing? The actor starred opposite the original Audrey, Ellen Greene (who still fit into her original costumes from 30 years ago!), as Seymour in the limited production of the '80s musical Little Shop of Horrors at New York City Center, July 1 and 2. For the actor, performing with Greene was literally a dream come true. "As a boy [I remember] watching her—her extraordinary empathy, and extraordinary sexuality, and this voice. I felt like everything I had done in my career had brought me oddly back to the place that I had dreamed of as a kid."

ESSENCE FESTIVAL

Usher makes a statement in his graphic T-shirt, which reads "Juneteenth"—the official celebration of the end of slavery—while giving an energetic performance in New Orleans on July 4.

India.Arie wears a pink dress and colorful butterfly head wrap while singing her neo-soul hits on July 3 in New Orleans. The musician premiered her new song "He's Got the Magic" during the festival.

Missy Elliott still knows how to "Work It!" The rapper jumped into the audience while performing her 2002 hit during day 3 of the festival at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans, July 4.

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: EVERETT; JOAN MARCUS; ERIKA GOLDRING/GETTY IMAGES; PARAS GRIFFIN/GETTY IMAGES; JOSH BRASTED/FILMMAGIC

Consider TECFIDERA—a pill that has the strength to cut relapses in half.

TECFIDERA is a pill for relapsing multiple sclerosis (MS) that has been shown to cut relapses in half. During a 2-year study, TECFIDERA reduced risk of relapse by 49% compared with placebo. TECFIDERA is also proven to slow the development of brain lesions and delay the progression of physical disability. Over 135,000 people around the world have taken TECFIDERA.* Ask your doctor if you should too.

Tecfidera® (dimethyl fumarate) is a prescription medicine used to treat people with relapsing forms of multiple sclerosis.

Important Safety Information

Do not use TECFIDERA if you have had an allergic reaction (such as welts, hives, swelling of the face, lips, mouth or tongue, or difficulty breathing) to TECFIDERA or any of its ingredients.

Before taking and while you take TECFIDERA, tell your doctor about any low white blood cell counts or infections or any other medical conditions.

What are the possible side effects of TECFIDERA? TECFIDERA may cause serious side effects including allergic reactions, PML, which is a rare brain infection that usually leads to death or severe disability, and decreases in your white blood cell count. Your doctor may check your white blood cell count before you take TECFIDERA and from time to time during treatment.

The most common side effects of TECFIDERA include flushing and stomach problems. These can happen especially at the start of treatment and may decrease over time. Taking TECFIDERA with food may help reduce flushing. Call your doctor if these symptoms bother you or do not go away. Ask your doctor if taking aspirin before taking TECFIDERA may reduce flushing.

These are not all the possible side effects of TECFIDERA. Call your doctor for medical advice about side effects. You may report side effects to FDA at 1-800-FDA-1088. For more information go to dailymed.nlm.nih.gov.

Tell your doctor if you are pregnant or plan to become pregnant, or breastfeeding or plan to breastfeed. It is not known if TECFIDERA will harm your unborn baby or if it passes into your breast milk. Also tell your doctor if you are taking prescription or over-the-counter medicines, vitamins, or herbal supplements.

For additional important safety information, please see Patient Information on the following page. This is not intended to replace discussions with your doctor.

*Biogen data on file.

†Based on number of prescriptions from IMS NPA™ Weekly Data (September 27, 2013 - March 31, 2015).

THE #1 PRESCRIBED PILL
for relapsing MS in the US since September 2013.†

Visit TecfideraPill.com or call 1-844-TalkTec (1-844-825-5832)

Biogen

© 2015 Biogen. All rights reserved. 4/15 TEC-US-0436
225 Binney Street, Cambridge, MA 02142 • 1-800-456-2255 • Tecfidera.com

Tecfidera® (dimethyl fumarate) delayed-release capsules 240 mg

Patient Information
TECFIDERA® (tek" fi de' rah)
(dimethyl fumarate) delayed-release capsules

What is TECFIDERA?
- TECFIDERA is a prescription medicine used to treat people with relapsing forms of multiple sclerosis (MS)
- It is not known if TECFIDERA is safe and effective in children under 18 years of age

Who should not take TECFIDERA?
- Do not use TECFIDERA if you have had an allergic reaction (such as welts, hives, swelling of the face, lips, mouth or tongue, or difficulty breathing) to TECFIDERA or any of its ingredients. See below for a complete list of ingredients.

Before taking and while you take TECFIDERA, tell your doctor if you have or have had:
- low white blood cell counts or an infection
- any other medical conditions

Tell your doctor if you are:
- pregnant or plan to become pregnant. It is not known if TECFIDERA will harm your unborn baby.
 - If you become pregnant while taking TECFIDERA, talk to your doctor about enrolling in the TECFIDERA Pregnancy Registry. You can enroll in this registry by calling 1-866-810-1462 or visiting www.tecfiderapregnancyregistry.com. The purpose of this registry is to monitor the health of you and your baby.
- breastfeeding or plan to breastfeed. It is not known if TECFIDERA passes into your breast milk. You and your doctor should decide if you will take TECFIDERA or breastfeed.
- taking prescription or over-the-counter medicines, vitamins, or herbal supplements

How should I take TECFIDERA?
- Take TECFIDERA exactly as your doctor tells you to take it
- The recommended starting dose is one 120 mg capsule taken by mouth 2 times a day for 7 days
- The recommended dose after 7 days is one 240 mg capsule taken by mouth 2 times a day
- TECFIDERA can be taken with or without food
- Swallow TECFIDERA whole. Do not crush, chew, or sprinkle capsule contents on food.
- Protect TECFIDERA from light. You can do this by storing the capsules in their original container.

What are the possible side effects of TECFIDERA?
TECFIDERA may cause serious side effects, including:
- allergic reactions (such as welts, hives, swelling of the face, lips, mouth or tongue, or difficulty breathing)
- PML a rare brain infection that usually leads to death or severe disability
- decreases in your white blood cell count. Your doctor should do a blood test before you start treatment with TECFIDERA and while on therapy.

The most common side effects of TECFIDERA include:
- flushing, redness, itching, or rash
- nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, stomach pain, or indigestion
- Flushing and stomach problems are the most common reactions, especially at the start of therapy, and may decrease over time. Taking TECFIDERA with food may help reduce flushing. Call your doctor if you have any of these symptoms and they bother you or do not go away. Ask your doctor if taking aspirin before taking TECFIDERA may reduce flushing.

These are not all the possible side effects of TECFIDERA. Call your doctor for medical advice about side effects. You may report side effects to FDA at 1-800-FDA-1088. For more information, go to dailymed.nlm.nih.gov.

General information about the safe and effective use of TECFIDERA
- Medicines are sometimes prescribed for purposes other than those listed in this Patient Information. Do not use TECFIDERA for a condition for which it was not prescribed. Do not give TECFIDERA to other people, even if they have the same symptoms that you have. It may harm them.
- If you would like more information, talk to your doctor or pharmacist. You can ask your doctor or pharmacist for information about TECFIDERA that is written for healthcare professionals.

What are the ingredients in TECFIDERA?
Active ingredient: dimethyl fumarate
Inactive ingredients: microcrystalline cellulose, silicified microcrystalline cellulose, croscarmellose sodium, talc, silica colloidal silicon dioxide, magnesium stearate, triethyl citrate, methacrylic acid copolymer - Type A, methacrylic acid copolymer dispersion, simethicone (30% emulsion), sodium lauryl sulphate, and polysorbate 80.
Capsule Shell: gelatin, titanium dioxide, FD&C blue 1; brilliant blue FCF, yellow iron oxide and black iron oxide.

Manufactured by: Biogen Inc., Cambridge, MA 02142, www.TECFIDERA.com or call 1-800-456-2255

This Patient Information has been approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration Issued: 4/2015

FLORIDA GEORGIA LINE'S

TYLER HUBBARD GETS HITCHED!

Hubbard wed Hayley Stommel at Trail Creek Cabin in Sun Valley, Idaho, on July 1, the two-year anniversary of their first kiss. "Mountains in the background, a little river and a bunch of really awesome people," Hubbard tells People of their postcard-perfect day. "We're just so happy!" As for his chosen hairstyle, Hubbard got his new wife's blessing beforehand. "I wasn't going to pull my hair up into a man bun without asking Hayley first!"

EXCLUSIVE People EXCLUSIVE

Hubbard surprised his bride by swapping out their planned wedding song, Keith Urban's "Making Memories of Us," for a special recording he made instead. "He had me crying," says Stommel. "It was just the happiest moment."

"The whole night was full of laughs," says Hubbard, with Hayley (in Monique Lhuillier) and fellow country artists (from left) Canaan Smith, Brett Eldredge, bandmate Brian Kelley, Lady Antebellum's Charles Kelley and Thomas Rhett. "Everyone just had the best time. Nobody needed encouragement to dance and have fun."

"We call ourselves family," says Hubbard of his FGL bandmate Brian Kelley, who also served as best man. "It's a cool feeling to have a friend you can share all types of life memories with. We do everything together."

Photographs by THE GROVERS

StyleTracks

The Best Looks at Paris Haute Couture Week

THESE STARS PUT ON A FASHION SHOW OF THEIR OWN IN THE FRONT ROW

Karlie Kloss hit the runway for Versace—then wore this gown to a dinner after!

Olivia Palermo in a Dior plunging checked wool dress, scarf, clutch and flats at the Schiaparelli Couture show.

Elizabeth Olsen in a Miu Miu silk dress, clutch and heels at the brand's cruise-collection show.

Lupita Nyong'o in a scarlet mini, patch-covered clutch and pumps by Dior at the Dior Haute Couture show.

Emily Blunt in head-to-toe Dior (and just one pearl earring!) at the Dior Haute Couture show.

Irina Shayk in a yellow Versace minidress and jeweled heels at the Atelier Versace show.

Jessica Alba in a Giambattista Valli mini and Stuart Weitzman boots at the Giambattista Valli show.

FROM LEFT: PIERRE SUU/GETTY IMAGES; PIERRE SUU/GC IMAGES; NICOLAS BRIQUET-ORBAN/ABACA; ETIENNE LAURENT/EPA/LANDOV; PASCAL LE SEGRETAIN/GETTY IMAGES; JACOPO RAULE/GC IMAGES; REX USA

ON THE WEB See more celeb style from the City of Lights at People.com/ParisCoutureWeek

& THERE YOU HAVE IT

9 out of 10 women agree that Venus Swirl moves with your body's curves.*

"The Venus Swirl Razor has renewed my love for shaving."

- Jennifer G. • California

"Very easy to use and effortless."

- Heather D. • Virginia

"This thing moved around my ankles, knees and underarms so easily."

- Sara E. • California

"Love the way it moves!"

- Amanda J. • New Jersey

Gillette® Venus® Swirl™ & great legs

See for yourself at gillettevenus.com

© The Procter & Gamble Company, 2015. *Gillette Cliff Test, Aug./Sept. 2014, USA, 250 participants.

SAVE on Venus today at coupons.com/venus
Coupons are available for a limited time only

REAL LEAF-BREWED TEA

WITHOUT THE FINE PRINT

FOR THE LOVE OF LEAVES

PureLeaf.com

©2015 PURE LEAF is a trademark of the Unilever Group of Companies.

Scoop

ALL THE NEWS & BUZZ FROM HOLLYWOOD

MILA & ASHTON'S WEDDING WEEKEND!

BY PATRICK GOMEZ

IT'S A FOURTH OF JULY they will never forget. Ashton Kutcher and Mila Kunis invited some of their closest friends and family to a remote location 1½ hours east of Los Angeles for a weekend of camping, a candlelit dinner—and, oh yeah, a wedding celebration. "They seemed very relaxed," a source says of the couple's demeanor in the days leading up to the festivities. "You would have never guessed they were actually preparing for [a big party]."

Kunis, 31, and Kutcher, 37 (who were officially married before the July 4 bash), kicked things off with a small poolside lunch at their Beverly Hills →

Kutcher and Kunis (here at a Lakers game in December 2014), who got engaged in early 2014. had a deejay and family-style comfort food at their July 4 bash.

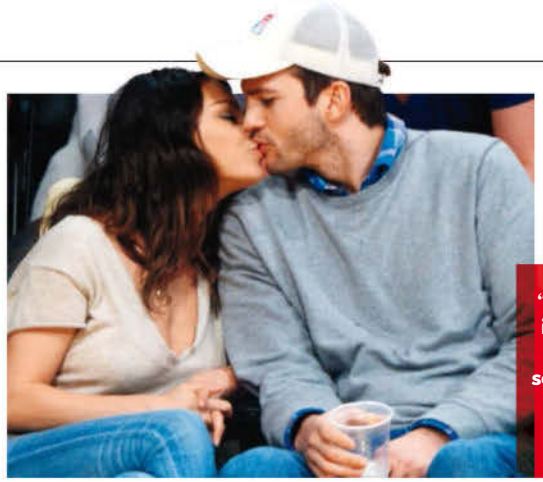

NOEL VASQUEZ/GETTY IMAGES

home on July 2. "Mila was especially laid-back," the source says of Kunis. "She just seemed happy."

The festivities then moved to a secluded spot—which Kutcher and Kunis dubbed "Camp KuKu"— at the Secret Garden at Parrish Ranch in Oak Glen, Calif. Those in attendance camped in style in tents (complete with hand-painted wooden name cards) that were set up in rows. Kunis, with her hair in an updo, wore white for the event, as did Wyatt, her 9-month-old daughter with Kutcher. "They are so in love," says an insider close to the couple. "It was a wonderful day. Just one great party."

The relaxed vibe was on par for Kunis and Kutcher, who often bring Wyatt on their date nights and spend their evenings taking her on walks around their neighborhood, according to the first source. "They really seem to be all about the baby," the first source adds of the couple, who first met in 1998 when they were cast as love interests on That '70s Show but didn't begin dating until 2012, after Kutcher separated from his first wife, Demi Moore. "We all get movie-star crushes," Kunis said of Kutcher in W magazine's 2014 August issue. "I'm marrying mine."

—With Pernilla Cedenheim and Linda Marx

"They are very much in love, in tune with each other and so comfortable," says a source close to Kutcher (with Kunis in L.A. in December 2014, left, and above, on That '70s Show in 1999).

'IT WAS A WONDERFUL DAY. JUST ONE GREAT PARTY"
—AN INSIDER CLOSE TO THE COUPLE

...Plus More I Dos!

The couple tied the knot at Joel's Long Island estate.

Billy Joel & Alexis Roderick
The singer and his bride "surprised guests at their annual July 4 party by exchanging vows in front of their family and close friends," said his rep. Joel, 66, and Roderick, 34, a former Morgan Stanley executive, will welcome a daughter this summer.

Kim Coles & Reggie Mckiver
"I didn't expect to be so emotional," the Living Single actress, 53, says of walking down the aisle to Mckiver, 41, at their intimate beach wedding on June 17 in the Dominican Republic.

Jenna Reeves & Tim Lopez
The Plain White T's guitarist, 34, and Reeves, 26—who met on NBC's Ready for Love—wed July 4 in Santa Barbara.

James Wolk & Elizabeth Jae Byrd
The Mad Men actor, 30, and his bride finally shared pics from their June ceremony.

Matt Dallas & Blue Hamilton
The Kyle XY star, 32, married singer-songwriter Hamilton, 36, over the weekend.

For Tyler Hubbard's woodsy wedding, see page 17, and for Vanessa Williams's Egypt-themed nuptials, see page 66.

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: GAMEPIKS; EVERETT; COURTESY JASON KOENIG; JEFF VESPA/WIREIMAGE; EARL GIBSON III/GETTY IMAGES; COURTESY LINDA PECHOTA; MYRNA SUAREZ/WIREIMAGE

You may think all pain relievers are the same. Your doctor doesn't.

For people with high blood pressure or on aspirin heart therapy, TYLENOL® is the brand of pain reliever recommended most often by doctors, more than all other brands combined.

© McNEIL-PPC, Inc. 2015

Learn more at
Tylenol.com/youshouldknow

TYLENOL®
For what matters most™

A CLASSIC CHOICE
Jenner (here on June 30) often pairs her outfits with elegant black patent slingbacks.

CAITLYN JENNER ON HER NEW LIFE

'I'VE LEARNED SO MUCH'

After a stylish week in New York City (see below), Caitlyn Jenner is sharing her reflections on her new life as a transgender woman. "Up until now, I have totally isolated myself from the transgender community, so I have a lot of catching up to do," writes the 65-year-old in the first of a series of editorials called "The Real Me" that she is releasing in partnership with WhoSay. Since her transition Jenner has been working to connect with her new community by spending time with other transgender women, visiting LGBT centers and stepping out during New York City Pride. "I've already learned so much about this community, the issues and the people involved," she continues in her post about her first weeks as Caitlyn. "It's been an eye-opening experience for me—mainly realizing how fortunate I am. I've heard every horror story there is in the book." Besides discussing lessons from her own journey, she will be sharing stories from others. "Seeing how my new friends have overcome their adversities is such an inspiration…and I can't wait for you to get to know them," Jenner writes. "I have so much to discover and hope that you'll join me on this adventure. Let's live our true selves and make a positive difference while doing it." –GABRIELLE OLYA

Caitlyn Jenner's N.Y.C. Style

Back in Black
On June 29 she wore a fitted Hervé Léger top and skirt, an outfit she also posed in as part of her Vanity Fair shoot.

That's a Wrap
Jenner looked lovely in leopard while heading to the Patricia Field store on June 30.

Quick Change
Jenner left the Patricia Field store in a sparkly mini.

FROM LEFT: RAYMOND HALL/GC IMAGES; ALO CEBALLOS/GC IMAGES; RAYMOND HALL/GC IMAGES; DDNY/BROADIMAGE

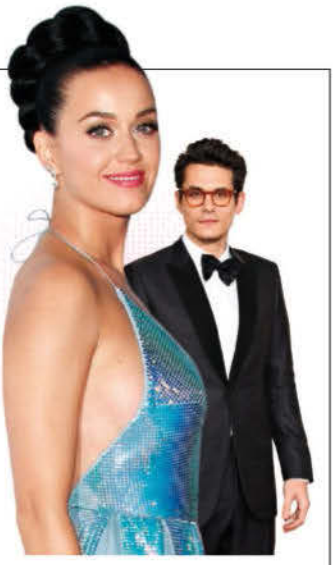

IT'S THE STOPS
THAT INSPIRE
US TO GO.
Toyota Camry | toyota.com/camry
Prototype shown with options. Production model will vary. ©2015 Toyota Motor Sales, U.S.A., Inc.
TOYOTA
Let's Go Places

A-LIST DATE NIGHTS!

JENNIFER LAWRENCE & CHRIS MARTIN

Though she's been busy shooting X-Men: Apocalypse in Montreal, Jennifer Lawrence, 24, and Chris Martin, 38, are still going strong. On July 3 the couple were spotted walking arm in arm near Central Park, and they were seen on a low-key date the next day in Battery Park. "Jen and Chris have been busy but are still very interested in each other," says a source close to the Coldplay frontman. "They get together when they can." —REPORTING BY LINDA MARX

KATY PERRY & JOHN MAYER

Over Fourth of July weekend, on-and-off couple Katy Perry, 30, and John Mayer, 37, attended back-to-back Grateful Dead shows in Chicago. On July 3 they hung out with a big group of friends, and one day later the couple partied in the pit before "holding hands backstage," says an onlooker.

YOUTUBE'S LOEY LANE

PROVING BEAUTY HAS NO SIZE

"From a young age, I was aware that I was bigger," says vlogger Loey Lane. "I didn't look like a lot of my friends did. . . . I was different." Now it's making her famous. Through her YouTube channel, the 22-year-old inspires women of all sizes to feel great about themselves by posting body-positive videos, one of which, "Why Fat Girls Shouldn't Wear Bikinis"—a takedown of Internet haters—became a sensation. Harsh commenters "fuel my fire," she says. "I can take these experiences and talk about them, and it's empowering. It makes me want to love my body and honor it even more." —KATE HOGAN

"I felt there was a gap—there weren't a lot of girls past a certain size making makeup and fashion videos."

ONE to WATCH

RACHEL PLATTEN

You might recognize Rachel Platten as the newest member of Taylor Swift's squad, but the "Fight Song" singer, 34, didn't find success overnight: "I'm older than a normal pop star and my journey took longer, but I kept fighting." —JODI GUGLIELMI

CLOCKWISE FROM BOTTOM LEFT: COURTESY LOEY LANE; JEFF KRAVITZ/FILMMAGIC; ALBERT L. ORTEGA/GETTY IMAGES; RUSS ELLIOT/ADMEDIA; JASON MERRITT/GETTY IMAGES; CINDY ORD/GETTY IMAGES

Leah Remini:
IT'S ALL RELATIVE.
Real. Funny. Family.
everyone needs a little family
TLC Summer
NEW SEASON JULY 15
WEDNESDAYS 9/8c
TLC.COM/LEAH
©2015 Discovery Communications

YOUR INVITATION TO TRY

BETTER SNACKS BY MAIL

FREE BOX

Discover over 100 nutritious snacks that taste like treats. Tell us what you like and we'll mail a FREE box to you. Happy grazing!

only at graze.com

graze

how to claim your FREE 4 snack sampler box:

1. visit us at www.graze.com
2. enter your invite code PPLMAG
3. tell us the snacks you like (OVER 100 DELICIOUS SNACKS)
4. we'll mail you a FREE box

Offer applies only to 4 pack box for new grazers. Valid credit or debit card required. Your first box is free & you can cancel deliveries at anytime. Ts & Cs at graze.com/us/help/terms.

"I never saw this coming," says Singer (with Mario and their daughter Avery in New York City in 2011). "Not in a million years."

REAL HOUSEWIVES OF NEW YORK CITY'S RAMONA SINGER'S MARRIAGE

INSIDE HER SPLIT WITH MARIO

As Ramona Singer looks back at her 22-year marriage to husband Mario, the Real Housewives of New York City star fights back tears. "We were the dream couple," Singer tells People. "We were the couple that were always happy and did things together, and we still had passion in our relationship—we had everything." But after catching him with his mistress last January at their Hamptons home, Singer, 58, says it was more than Mario's shocking affair that crumbled their marriage. "All of a sudden he turned 60, and his whole character and demeanor and everything about him changed," she recalls. "I would push him to be more positive, but after a certain point I couldn't fix him. He just wasn't a happy person." At the same time, Singer's success as a reality star continued to grow. "My career, the show and my daughter going to college, that was all in the front, and Mario felt left behind, like we stopped being a team," adds Singer. "Mario had the affair because things weren't right with both of us, but a relationship is two people, not three." Now, as the couple finalizes the details of their divorce, Singer says their relationship remains "cordial but strained"—something she didn't want for their 20-year-old daughter Avery. "In the beginning Avery wouldn't speak to him, and she took it very hard," Singer says. "But I encouraged her to have a relationship. No matter what happened between us, he's still her father and he loves her very much."

—EMILY STROHM

HER NEW BOOK Life on the Ramona Coaster (available at Amazon) chronicles the end of her marriage.

FROM LEFT: BETHANY MICHAELA JONES; GREGORY PACE/BEIMAGES SHUTTERSTOCK

Passages

Tiffani Thiessen, Harper & Holt (inset).

BABIES

Oh boy! Tiffani Thiessen gave birth to a son, Holt Fisher Smith, on July 1. The Dinner at Tiffani's host, 41, and her husband, actor Brady Smith, are already parents to daughter Harper Renn, 5. "Harper can't get enough of her baby brother," the actress wrote on Instagram. ● Tamera Mowry-Housley, 37, welcomed her second child with husband Adam Housley, 43, on July 1. Daughter Ariah Talea joins big brother Aden, 2. "We are beyond overjoyed," the proud parents told People.

● Josh Hartnett, and his girlfriend, actress and model Tamsin Egerton, 26, are expecting their first child, a rep confirmed to People on July 3.

● Michael Bublé and wife Luisana Lopilato are expecting their second child. The singer, 39, and Argentinian actress, 28, announced the news on July 6 via Facebook.

● Alexandra Reeve Givens—the 31-year-old daughter of Christopher Reeve—and her husband, Garren Givens, welcomed their first child on June 13. The couple named the newborn Christopher "after his grandfathers on each side," a family rep confirmed to People.

REVEALED

Donna Karan announced on June 30 that she is stepping down as chief designer of her namesake company. The fashion star, 66, will focus on her foundation.

Garren, Alexandra Reeve and Christopher Givens.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Benedict Cumberbatch, 39
July 19, 1976

Jane Lynch, 55
July 14, 1960

Kristen Bell, 35
July 18, 1980

DEATHS

Amanda Peterson, star of 1987's Can't Buy Me Love, died July 5 at age 43. The cause of death was not confirmed as of press time. ● Jerry Weintraub, who produced The Karate Kid and the Ocean's Eleven franchise, died on July 6 at age 77. ● Burt Shavitz, cofounder of Burt's Bees, died on July 5 at age 80.

By Harriet Sokmensuer

Brewster, with 22-month-old son Julian, at an Alliance of Moms event.

Jordana Brewster

The actress, 35, advocates for young mothers in the foster care system

Why I Care

PERSONAL STORIES ABOUT GIVING BACK

Los Angeles has the largest number of foster youth, and nearly 75 percent of girls who are in foster care are pregnant by the age of 21. My friends and I have a great community of moms with so much support, but I think we're also responsible for taking care of moms who don't have as many resources. Alliance of Moms offers young parents in the foster care system hands-on workshops that teach different skill sets like infancy CPR and proper nutrition. When you see parents at a workshop, you know they're getting the knowledge they need, and you know that's having a direct impact on their lives. One of the founding members, Danika Charity, is also a doula, and she came up with the idea for the Raising Baby event, which offers the practical advice that these parents need. Just being able to talk it out is important—and having friends and a community of moms is so helpful.

—REPORTED BY MELODY CHIU

For more information, go to allianceofmoms.org

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: DONATO SARDELLA/GETTY IMAGES; COURTESY TIFFANI THIESSEN; CHINA FOTOPRESS/GETTY IMAGES; COURTESY REEVE GIVENS FAMILY; LILY LAWRENCE/GETTY IMAGES

GREAT IDEAS SPECIAL EDITION

Celebrate Summer!

Seasonal, fun, fresh ideas and easy recipes from the star chefs you love.

PICK UP YOUR COPY IN STORES TODAY!

iPad only digital edition available at PEOPLESPECIALS.COM

©2015 Time Inc. PEOPLE is a trademark of Time Inc., registered in the U.S. and other countries.

"THE BEST NICHOLAS SPARKS MOVIE SINCE THE NOTEBOOK"
– Pete Hammond, DEADLINE
BRITT ROBERTSON
SCOTT EASTWOOD
THE LONGEST RIDE
TWO INCREDIBLE LOVE STORIES. ONE EXTRAORDINARY JOURNEY.
ON BLU-RAY™ & DVD JULY 14
PG-13
SOME SEXUALITY, PARTIAL NUDITY, AND SOME WAR AND SPORTS ACTION
© 2015 Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation and TSG Entertainment Finance LLC. All Rights Reserved.
© 2015 Twentieth Century Fox Home Entertainment LLC. All Rights Reserved. TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX, FOX and associated logos are trademarks of Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation and its related entities.

People picks

EDITED BY TOM GLIATTO

FOR ADDITIONAL REVIEWS OF MOVIES, TV SHOWS, MUSIC AND BOOKS, GO TO PEOPLE.COM/PICKS

A DOZEN COOL THINGS TO SEE, HEAR, READ AND DOWNLOAD THIS WEEK

The adorable oddballs from Despicable Me bob up in their own movie.

ILLUMINATION ENTERTAINMENT/UNIVERSAL PICTURES

No. 1 Minions

Prepare to become fluent in Minionese, as Sandra Bullock and Jon Hamm meet Gru's crew

MOVIE ANIMATED Those Despicable sidekicks get top billing in a bubbly outing that—get this—is actually, unabashedly meant to entertain kids. Sure, there are sly nods to the Beatles, as the banana-loving dudes hit '60s England in giddy service of their new boss. But the humor and energy are sweetly juvenile as Kevin, Bob and Stuart (all voiced by Pierre Coffin) cozy up to baddie Scarlett Overkill (Bullock, vamping it up) and her hubby, Herb (Hamm, fully silly). If it all starts to feel a tad slight, that's fine: Not every summer cartoon needs to turn us Inside Out. (July 10, PG)

BE 30 BILLION STRONG

30x more probiotics than Align®†

Get $5.00 Coupon at save.fortifyprobiotics.com

†Per serving. Align is a registered trademark of Procter & Gamble.

*This statement has not been evaluated by the Food & Drug Administration. This product is not intended to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent any disease.

Michael Sheen and Lizzy Caplan as the pioneering sex researchers and celebrities.

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: LIZ VON HOENE/SHOWTIME; PATRICK HARBRON/FX; CLAUDETTE BARIUS/WARNER BROS.

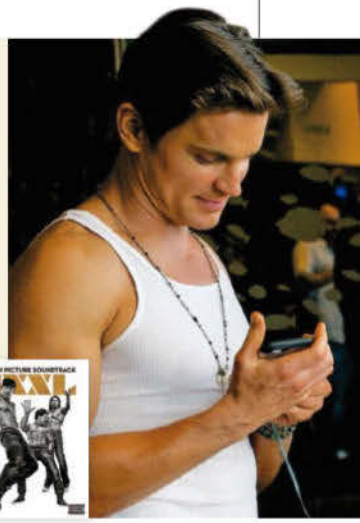

No. 2 Masters of Sex

In season 3 the pillow talk gets louder than ever

TV DRAMA On the eve of publishing Human Sexual Response, Dr. William Masters (Michael Sheen) meets with reporters to answer their questions about his groundbreaking study, coauthored with Virginia Johnson (Lizzy Caplan). Is he encouraging too much sex? "There's physical promiscuity," he says, "and there's mental promiscuity"; the latter "presents a far greater danger." Perhaps so, but then why are Masters and Johnson, who happen to be lovers, so chronically miserable? Now they're about to become world-famous, never the best aid to intimacy. Masters remains TV's most ironic, sophisticated show about the complicated interaction of mojo and ego. (Showtime, July 12, 10 p.m.)

No. 3 Magic Mike XXL: Original Motion Picture Soundtrack

MUSIC POP/R&B Mike XXL is a crazy trip—like Showgirls rebooted as a road movie with male exotic dancers—and this collection is likewise both sensual and enjoyably peculiar. Donald Glover delivers a light, funky version of Bruno Mars's "Marry You," and Matt Bomer—who can really sing—sounds just like Annie Lennox on the high notes of "Heaven." Add R. Kelly, Jodeci and Ginuwine, and you have all the tracks you need to practice your slow grind at home.

TABLET BONUS! For movie trailers, TV clips and music links, check out People's tablet edition.

People picks

Leary as a survivor (barely) from a time before Lady Gaga, hip-hop or iTunes.

No. 4 Sex&Drugs& Rock&Roll

COMEDY In his first TV series since Rescue Me, Denis Leary plays Johnny, a middle-aged, drug-loving rocker whose career stalled decades ago, back when most people could still have mistaken "CBGB" for a meaningless alphabetical clump. Johnny lands a promising, even redemptive new gig, but the show wisely plays to Leary's raw, sarcastic unprettiness. He's a rolling stone all but covered in moss. (FX, July 16, 10 p.m.)

Gotta dance, gotta sing: stars Matt Bomer and Donald Glover.

© 2015 Kraft Foods

Oscar Mayer

NO ARTIFICIAL PRESERVATIVES, FLAVORS OR COLORS
+ NO FILLERS OR BY-PRODUCTS
+ NO ARTIFICIAL INGREDIENTS
YES!

It's Yes Food. It's Oscar Mayer.

People picks

No. 5 Tangerine

Take a walk on the wild side with this vivid take on L.A.

MOVIE COMEDY/ DRAMA

Tangerine most likely isn't about your crowd—here are transgender prostitutes hustling for a living while holding onto their dreams. Take the ride anyway. Director Sean Baker turns Los Angeles into a vibrant playground where Sin-Dee (Kitana Kiki Rodriguez) and Alexandra (Mya Taylor) are constantly on the move, working, gossiping and looking for love—or the closest thing to it. Rodriguez and Taylor make effervescent tour guides despite their heartaches. In the course of one night their lives nearly unravel even as the city feels, as one character puts it, like a "beautifully wrapped lie." This film feels like the truth. (July 10, R)

Taylor and Rodriguez give heart and soul to Tangerine.

MAGNOLIA PICTURES

Two irresistible flavors

Noah Feldshuh, Sam Harris, Casey Harris and Adam Levin.

No. 6 X Ambassadors, VHS

MUSIC

ALT-ROCK The Brooklyn-based indie band's bombastic first LP spans genres: One minute they're hawking swagged-up soul pop (their come-on "Gorgeous" is reminiscent of Nick Jonas's "Jealous"), the next, arena stompers ("Jungle"). But the underlying thread is the narrative, told in autobiographical lyrics: On "Unsteady," over a spare piano arrangement, frontman Sam Harris relives his parents' divorce. VHS could just as well stand for "very heavy stuff."

FROM LEFT: NATALIA MANTINI; VH1

No. 7 Dating Naked: Playing for Keeps

TV

REALITY Season 2 tweaks the format to up the tension, but there's no need to dress up the show's gimmick: What could be more mortifying than a blind date in the buff? In the premiere Kerri and Chris can't decide how to take nudity to the next level—clearly they're overthinking this. Then a dark-haired beauty arrives, so physically bold she makes sexiness seem smug. Your move, Kerri baby. (VH1, July 22, 9 p.m.)

Chris, Kerri and an immodest dash of seashell jewelry.

under 200 calories.

I don't like the way people are looking at us.

I better be getting paid overtime for this.

®/TM trademarks © Mars, Incorporated 2014

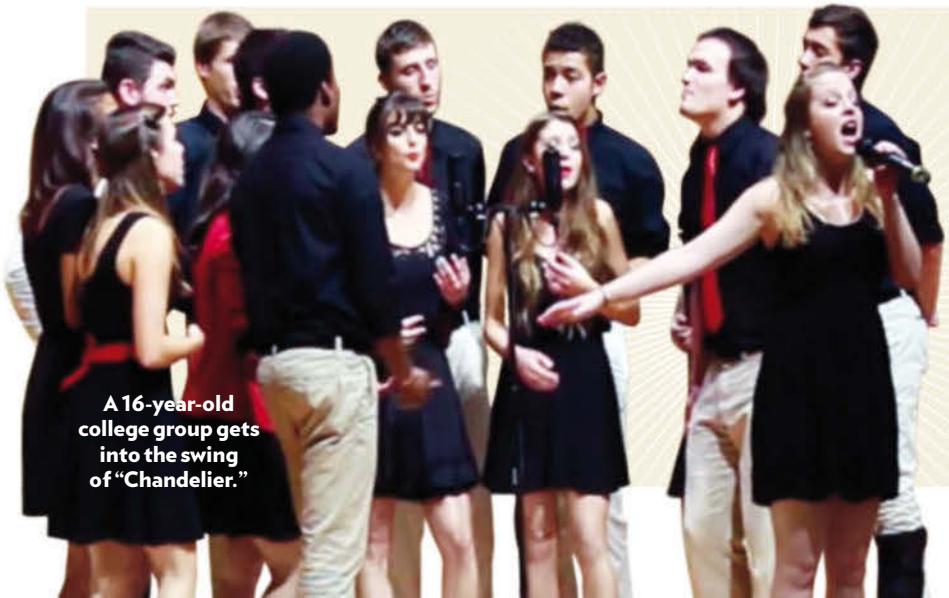

People picks

No. 8 Dr. Jeff: Rocky Mountain Vet

TV REALITY Denver veterinarian Jeff Young is a tough-looking hombre with graying, shoulder-length hair, the profile of a motorbiker pugilist and a no-frills waiting room filled with sick and wounded animals: This show could have been pitched to FX as Pets of Anarchy. But it's a lot more sensitive than that—the animals' owners often come to Dr. Jeff strapped for cash, and his patients behave with a mute, suffering trust in human judgment. The premiere throws in a bit of zoological exoticism—a camel—but you'll be more drawn to Chico, a poor old dog with fluid on the lungs. (Animal Planet, July 11, 10 p.m.)

Tough love: Dr. Jeff and a puppy patient.

A 16-year-old college group gets into the swing of "Chandelier."

No. 9 Twisted Measure

YOUTUBE This a capella group from North Carolina's Elon University makes the Pitch Perfect cast look like amateurs with their covers of contemporary hits—their haunting, harmonized rendition of Sia's "Chandelier" has become an online sensation. Look out, Barden Bellas, these tuneful kids may go from the quad to the big time. (youtube.com/elontwistedmeasure)

(RIGHT) TV LAND

FROM LEFT: ANIMAL PLANET; FOCUS FEATURES

No. 10 5 Flights Up

Put in an offer on this charming movie

DVD+STREAMING COMEDY/DRAMA Alex (Morgan Freeman) and Ruth (Diane Keaton) would love to spend their golden years in their fifth-floor Brooklyn walk-up. But aging bones and real estate markets being what they are, that's unlikely. Cue the tense open houses, crazed bidding wars and wistful flashbacks of their long romance. It's an inviting film for Freeman or Keaton fans—and even better if you're buying or selling.

Keaton and Freeman make a comfy pair of gray foxes.

Gaffigan and Ashley Williams as his wife, Jeannie.

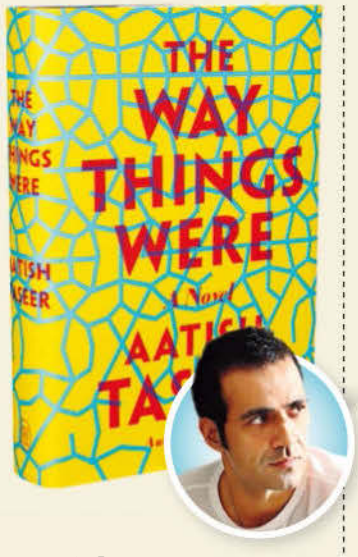

No. 11 The Jim Gaffigan Show

TV COMEDY Gaffigan, the likable comedian at the heart of this mood-boosting sitcom, is physically somewhere between Louis CK and Big Hero 6's Baymax—you can't help but agree when a friend (Michael Ian Black) finds him lounging around and says, "You look like a dead marshmallow." (Gaffigan tops him: "You look like every bad guy on Downton Abbey.") Sticking close to his stand-up image, he's a contentedly rumpled family man coping with the hurly-burly of Manhattan. This is one of summer TV's bright spots. (TV Land, July 15, 10 p.m.)

No. 12 The Best New Books

The emotional lives of animals (who knew?), a birth mother's brave memoir and a ravishing tale of modern India

EDITED BY KIM HUBBARD

Aatish Taseer
The Way Things Were

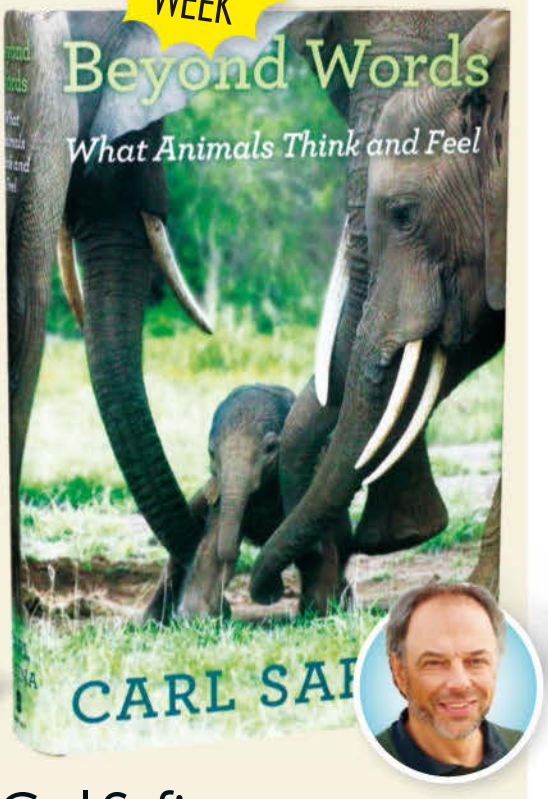

NOVEL A young New Yorker dutifully brings his father's body back to India for burial in this ambitious novel about a modern land reckoning with its history. Weighty material—Sanskrit scholars and the politics of Indira Gandhi for starters—is leavened with humor, humanity and passionate romance. A serious saga you can't put down.

Amy Seek
God and Jetfire

MEMOIR An undergrad when she learned she was pregnant, Seek decided to give up her son through open adoption. Her brave memoir paints a heartfelt portrait of a modern family—one in which time with her boy "wouldn't be easy," she writes. "It would always be a kind of tending to our wounds." A balm for anyone who's ever faced an excruciatingly tough decision.

BOOK OF THE WEEK

Carl Safina
Beyond Words

NONFICTION Do animals have emotions? In this awe-inspiring book, ecologist Safina explores the rich inner lives of elephants, killer whales, apes and more, showing how, like humans, they feel and exhibit jealousy, anger, love and joy. Elephants grieve, cradling their dead. An alpha wolf pretends to lose a wrestling match with his cub. A tiger, after humans take his kill, destroys their traps. Prepare to be amazed by how strongly, in Safina's words, "we are kin" to all creatures.

NEW IN PAPERBACK

Gail Sheehy
Daring: My Passages
All she wanted was everything: sparkling career, stature, love, children. An influential journalist looks back on her charmed life.

Randy Susan Meyers
Accidents of Marriage
Social worker Maddy's life with her beloved but volatile husband takes a dark turn in Meyers's resonant, engrossing novel.

Robert Galbraith
The Silkworm
Novelist Owen Quine has disappeared after writing a manuscript that disses nearly all his friends. Was it foul play? Another winner from Galbraith (aka J.K. Rowling).

INSETS, FROM LEFT: MANOJ KUMAR JAIN; JUSTIN ASH; MICHAEL LUTCH; BOOKS: PETER ZAMBOUROS(4)

CONTRIBUTORS Books Michele Filgate, Caroline Leavitt, Mary Pols Movies Alynda Wheat Music Jeff Nelson

#haveKINDLEwillTRAVEL

@OUROPENROAD, PATAGONIA | Amazon asked us to take the Kindle Paperwhite with us on the road. We stopped outside Torres Del Paine National Park to let the girls explore, while I downloaded Lonely Planet South America and planned our next move.

Follow more journeys on Instagram @AMAZONKINDLE

kindle

amazon

A MARRIAGE'S SAD END The couple announced their divorce while in the Bahamas together. In a moment away from their kids, "they would speak and then both look away in silence," says a witness.

BEN AFFLECK & JENNIFER GARNER

After 10 years and 3 kids... What

It should have been an occasion to celebrate: a 10th-anniversary trip to a secluded island in the Bahamas. But for Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner, their visit to Baker's Bay Golf & Ocean Club, a private community in the Abacos where they own a home, was a time of mourning. After flying in separately, the stars revealed on June 30, one day after their anniversary, that they had made the "difficult decision" to divorce. "The family felt it was important to be together, and they were together as a family that day," says a source close to the couple. Four days later Mom and Dad slipped away from their three kids, Violet, 9, Seraphina, 6, and Samuel, 3, for a few moments of quiet reflection before Affleck returned solo to L.A. that night. Sitting on steps near the pink sand beach, the two "looked miserable. They had a somber-looking conversation," says an onlooker. "You could tell that they are both really struggling with the whole situation. It was obvious that they are both in a lot of pain."

LEFT TO RIGHT: MIAMIPIXX/FAME FLYNET(2); RON WOLFSON/LANDOV

Went Wrong

"She was fed up," says a source who recently spent time with Garner (with Affleck in 2014). "She didn't want to spend another year of her life being miserable."

The former couple said in an exclusive statement to People that they would "go forward with love and friendship for one another." But the split follows years of mounting tensions, unhappiness and attempts to work through their problems in couples therapy, according to more than a dozen friends, colleagues and other close sources who spoke to People. Affleck alluded to the strain when he called marriage to Garner "the best kind of work" in his speech at the 2013 Oscars. Now, as the marriage is ending, Affleck, 42, "is devastated. Nobody intends to go down this path," says the source close to the couple, noting that the actor has been leaning on his mom, Christine, and best pal Matt Damon for support. Affleck and Garner "both battled, and he really battled to try and save the marriage, but ultimately it was the best thing for the kids and for him and Jen." The two plan to use a mediator to negotiate the division of their assets (estimated at well over $100 million), and for now both will remain living on the couple's 8,800-sq.-ft. estate in L.A., which they bought for $17.5 million in 2009. Those close to Garner, 43, say she too is heartbroken because "at the end of the day, he left her no choice," says a longtime friend. "But she has always been and continues to be the strongest person I know. All things considered, she is handling this as well as any person could. People either rise up or fall down, and she's risen up in this situation."

So what was the breaking point? According to the actress's longtime friend, Affleck had a candid conversation with Garner recently and "told Jen he had not been committed to the marriage within the past few years.... Jen is a fighter. She would not give up unless there was a good reason." Several sources close to Garner say that allegations of infidelity (which Affleck vehemently denies) and other troubling behavior by Affleck, including gambling and drinking, weighed heavily in Garner's decision. "She loved Ben," says another friend, "but there comes a time when you have to say enough is enough and take care of yourself."

Other sources dispute that version of events. "Saying he's a bad father and husband is an easy story, and everyone has wanted to clock him as a womanizer and gambler," the source close to the

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: EVERETT; AVIK GILBOA/WIREIMAGE; MIKE SEGAR/REUTERS; CENTRAL IMAGE AGENCY; FLYNET

Power Couple

FROM DAREDEVIL TO THE OSCARS, THEY SHARED SWEET AND STARRY MOMENTS

2003 Affleck has said he and Garner fell in love while making Daredevil.

2003 While doing press for Daredevil, Garner said of Affleck, "He's your basic tall, dark and handsome."

2004 Garner cheered on Affleck's beloved Red Sox in the World Series.

2005 On a date before their Turks & Caicos nuptials. "We were able to have a beautiful, private wedding," said Garner.

2005 Just married! Affleck once said of Garner, "She's the most beautiful woman out there."

couple says, maintaining that Affleck's best efforts never seemed good enough for Garner, and their decision to split was mutual. "She could be overly controlling," the source contends. "He couldn't deal with her expectations. When you're told you're not good enough, you start to believe it."

Some of Affleck's behavior has long been tabloid fodder. Despite going to rehab in 2001, he's been spotted drinking over the past few years. And he has spent long nights gambling from Detroit (where he filmed Batman v Superman: Dawn of Justice) to Las Vegas, where he was banned from playing blackjack at the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino in 2014. (The source close to the couple maintains he doesn't drink or gamble to excess: "There are people who know their limits.") In private, Affleck can be magnetically charming or moody and difficult, several friends and colleagues say. "Ben has his demons," says a source in the couple's circle. "He had some very dark spells, and Jennifer was very aware of them. She hated when he went through periods like that."

'Ben's not a bad guy. He's just the kind of guy who never should have gotten married'
—A GARNER SOURCE

Few in their circle were surprised when the split was announced. "They have both been very open about their marriage struggles," says one friend. The stars' very different personalities were also a big source of friction in the marriage, according to insiders. Raised in a close-knit family alongside her two sisters in West Virginia, Garner, a former band geek, is a self-professed lover of all things domestic. The Boston-bred Affleck had a less traditional childhood. His single mom raised him after a divorce from his father, who struggled with alcohol problems, and Ben started winning acting roles at age 11 before shooting to fame with his 1998 Oscar for writing Good Will Hunting alongside Damon.

After meeting as costars on the set of 2001's Pearl Harbor, Affleck and Garner reconnected during the production of their film Daredevil in 2003 and, as both later admitted, fell in love. "I don't know what makes [the relationship] work, but it does," Garner told Marie Claire. That year Affleck called off his highly publicized engagement to Jennifer Lopez just four days prior to their wedding, and Garner ended her two-year marriage to actor Scott Foley. "Jen and Ben both came with baggage," says a source close to the family. "Jen's no

CLOCKWISE FROM LEFT: JFX IMAGES; SETH BROWARNIK/WORLDREDEYE.; CHRISTOPHER POLK/GETTY IMAGES; JASON MERRITT/GETTY IMAGES; ROBYN BECK/AFP/GETTY IMAGES; FAME

2005
The couple attended Affleck's brother Casey's birthday party shortly before Violet was born.

2008
They stepped out with Matt Damon and his wife, Luciana, to an Obama fund-raiser.

2011
"You steal a date, you steal a kiss," Garner once said of how they make it work.

2005
Just a few weeks after Violet's birth, the new parents celebrated the holidays in Georgia.

2013
He called their marriage "work" in his Oscar speech, which Garner responded was "the hugest, warmest compliment."

saint either, but this is why they were good together. They were always very comfortable with each other's problems and didn't judge."

Affleck himself acknowledged that Garner was a stabilizing force after his life with Lopez had become tabloid fodder. "My wife was definitely around then," he told Playboy in 2013. "Getting to know her, falling in love with her and being connected with her gave me a foundation to reach out and say, 'Okay, I'm going to do Hollywoodland. I'm going to direct Gone Baby Gone.'" Garner was already pregnant with Violet when the two married in June 2005. "Ben wanted what Jen represented, which was stability and family and consistency and love," says her friend. Adds another source: "Jen knew what she was getting into when she met Ben. She was clean-cut and seemed to be attracted to that part of him, the bad boy. It was a whirlwind relationship."

In March, Violet watched her dad testify before Congress on behalf of his Eastern Congo Initiative.

Protecting the Kids

Before announcing their divorce, Affleck and Garner whisked their three kids—Violet, 9, Seraphina, 6, and Samuel, 3—away to the Bahamas to keep them out of the public eye. "They made a conscious decision to be together as a family," says a source close to the couple. They plan to share custody—and their L.A. estate. "These are things that they have consciously done because they want to make sure that this is as easy as they can make it on the kids," says the source. "They do still love each other and love their children."

'This isn't easy for them. No one wants to go through something like this'
—A FRIEND OF AFFLECK'S

The couple found a happy moment in 2014, but their split "was inevitable," an Affleck source says.

Trying to balance a career of her own with her kids' activities and running their household, Garner embraced domesticity in L.A. "She's probably the best mom I know. I think a lot about what she would do in situations with my own kids," says her longtime friend. One pal of Affleck's says being a hands-on dad was always a goal for the actor. "Ben wanted children and a family his whole life," his friend allows. "He didn't grow up with a present father, so his biggest fear was being the dad that only saw his kids on the weekends. He never wanted that."

While Affleck spent a quiet Fourth of July by himself in L.A. (Garner departed the Bahamas on July 5 with the kids), both stars will stay busy with work commitments: He's promoting Batman v Superman, which opens next March; Garner is set to start filming Miracles from Heaven in Atlanta. Despite their differences, they valued their family time in the Bahamas, and friends hope it's a sign of what their life will be like as exes. "It's nice to at least try to move in a positive direction with your life," says the source close to the couple. "It's not happy, it's not easy, but it's nice to look forward."

Reported by Pernilla Cedenheim, Mary Green, Elizabeth Leonard, Linda Marx, Liz McNeil and Aili Nahas

FROM TOP: PAUL MORIGI/WIREIMAGE; BOAZ/FAME FLYNET PICTURES

THE NIGHTMARE BEFORE CHRISTMAS

Cuckoo Clock

On the hour, Zero emerges and the clock plays the beloved song from Danny Elfman's brilliant score, "This is Halloween"

- Fully-sculpted clock features Jack Skellington, Sally, Lock, Shock and Barrel, Jack's tower and the Town Hall
- Brilliant LED lights illuminate the tower, ghosts, and pumpkins and feature a separate on/off switch
- The clock face features the replica spider web design and slightly off-kilter numbers
- Issued in a limited edition of 295 crafting days; accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity

It Lights Up

Fully-sculpted, meticulously-detailed clock lights up from within, with Jack's tower, the ghosts and pumpkins all glowing with eerie light!

A Grand 21 inches high!

The brass-toned pendulum is decorated with the iconic hill and decorative hanging pine cone weights feature Shock and Barrel clinging to them

Not sold in stores

Your satisfaction is guaranteed!

This one-of-its-kind timepiece is custom crafted in a limited edition and strong demand is expected. So act now to acquire the The Nightmare Before Christmas Cuckoo Clock at its issue price, payable in four monthly installments of $49.99 each, for a total of $199.95*. Your purchase is risk-free, backed by our 365-day guarantee. Send no money now. Just mail the Reservation Application today!

Disney
TIM BURTON'S
THE NIGHTMARE BEFORE CHRISTMAS

©2014 BGE 01-18084-001-BI

Shown much smaller than actual size of about 21in. H. (including weights)
Requires 3 "AAA" and 1 "AA" batteries (not included).

©Disney

www.bradfordexchange.com/nightmareclock

RESERVATION APPLICATION SEND NO MONEY NOW

THE BRADFORD EXCHANGE HOME DÉCOR

9345 Milwaukee Avenue · Niles, IL 60714-1393

YES. Please reserve the The Nightmare Before Christmas Cuckoo Clock for me as described in this announcement.
Limit: one per order. Please Respond Promptly

Mrs. Mr. Ms. _____
Name (Please Print Clearly)

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Email (optional) _____

01-18084-001-E27891

*Plus $23.99 shipping and service. Limited-edition presentation restricted to 295 crafting days. Please allow 4-8 weeks after initial payment for shipment. Sales subject to product availability and order acceptance.

THE ROYAL CHRISTENING!

HERE COMES THE SUN

William and Kate (with George and Charlotte on July 5) offered a "big thank-you" to fans after the christening. Far right: the Queen, Prince Philip and Camilla, Duchess of Cornwall, outside the church. Center: St. Mary Magdalene Church.

CLOCKWISE FROM BOTTOM LEFT: CHRIS JACKSON/WPA/GETTY IMAGES; ALPHA PRESS/ADMEDIA; RADCLIFFE/BAUER-GRIFFIN/GC IMAGES; CHRIS JACKSON/WPA/GETTY IMAGES; CHRIS JACKSON/ROYAL ROTA/ROYALFOTO/IPHOTO

George & Charlotte's Big Day Out!

With country warmth and classic style, the royals mark a christening fit for a princess

By SIMON PERRY

The rain had cleared, the sun was glinting off the frame of the vintage Millson carriage pushed by Princess Kate, and some 3,500 well-wishers were cheering—but Prince George was having none of it. After making the 200-yard walk into St. Mary Magdalene Church for his sister Charlotte's July 5 christening, the nearly 2-year-old future king had reached his limit as he exited the ceremony. He first attempted an escape across a nearby churchyard before dissolving into tears and being scooped up by his dad, Prince William. Back at "Nanny's house"—as William could be heard describing the Queen's Sandringham House to

George—the family enjoyed an afternoon tea of finger sandwiches and a tier of William and Kate's 2011 wedding fruitcake. By then both George and 2-month-old Charlotte were carried away by the cheerful mood. "The whole day had a happy family feel," a royal source in attendance tells People. "It was a celebration."

It was also the world's first look at the new royal family of four—and once again the special day featured a carefully curated nostalgic style that has become the signature of art history grad Kate (see sidebar). "It was choreographed like a movie," says Ingrid Seward, author of A Century of Royal Children. "Because Kate has a photographer's eye, she paints a picture."

In contrast to George's 2013 baptism at London's Chapel Royal in St. James's Palace, Charlotte's christening in the countryside of Norfolk—some 110 miles north—"had more of a family atmosphere than the first one," a friend tells People. The religious service, again conducted by the Archbishop of Canterbury, Justin Welby, "was very formal," adds the friend, "but at the same time charming and relaxed."

It's the same vibe at Anmer Hall, the country home William and Kate, both 33, have been settling into since Char-

NANNY MARIA
A graduate of England's Norland College, Maria Turrion Borrallo (with the Queen and George) wore her school's uniform, white gloves and all. "It's very much a statement for them that she is not hidden away, like many celebrity nannies are," says Sarah Dixon, a maternity nurse who has worked with friends of the royal couple. "They chose her for her traditional training. She's obviously very well-liked."

LOCAL CHEER Thousands gathered outside the church at the royal family's invitation.

LITTLE MAN OF THE HOUR
"George was a star," says a friend. "He is absolutely charming."

SNEAK PEEK
George checked on his sister while his mom (in Alexander McQueen) looked on.

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: REX/SHUTTERSTOCK; MAX MUMBY/INDIGO/GETTY IMAGES; MATT DUNHAM/AP; CHRIS JACKSON/ROYAL ROTA/ROYALFOTO/IPHOTO

Pure Silk Shave Cream contains aloe to moisturize your skin, giving you the smoothest, most touchable legs without irritation. Shaving with Pure Silk is the easiest way to love your legs!

*NO PURCHASE NECESSARY. LEGAL RESIDENTS OF THE 48 CONTIGUOUS UNITED STATES (D.C.) 13 AND OLDER. VOID IN AK, HI AND WHERE PROHIBITED. Ends 8/15/15. For Official Rules, prize descriptions and odds disclosure, visit http://pure-silk.com/jana.

Pure Silk®

JUST LIKE DAD George's $189 Rachel Riley smocked outfit echoed the one William wore in 1984 (left). "It's a traditional shape from the 1920s," Riley tells People. "It's right for a formal occasion."

KATE: QUEEN of the ROYAL THROWBACK

The mum of two finds new ways to revive old traditions

VINTAGE WHEELS The Millson pram was previously used by the Queen for her younger sons Princes Edward and Andrew (left, with Anne, Charles and Prince Philip in 1965). It also "offered a good chance for people to see Charlotte," says a source.

TIMELESS GOWN Charlotte was baptized in a replica of the 1841 gown William wore (with Diana and Charles in 1982). "It was re-created in exactly the same way—from sketching it out to embroidering the lace on a special silk-based tulle," says an insider.

THE ROYAL CHRISTENING!

lotte's May 2 birth. (Latest renovation plans for the sporty pair: a new tennis court.) William is clocking in for his air-ambulance shifts, while Kate continues to devote the bulk of her time to playing and nesting with her kids. She does have a couple of royal outings scheduled before the end of July, but the royal source cautions against her full-time return to royal duties in the near future. "She's still largely focused on the family," says the source, "and spending time with her children."

From a kid-friendly local farm to playgrounds and nearby beaches, Norfolk is a place where children "can run around and muck about," says Desmond MacCarthy of Wiveton Hall Café, where Kate has dined. In choosing Norfolk for the christening, the couple also paid homage to William's late mother, Princess Diana, who spent much of her childhood there. (Further, they selected Laura Fellowes, Di's niece, to be among Charlotte's five godparents.) "It was nicely done with regard to the connection with Diana and the Spencer family," says the friend. "It was a very Norfolk occasion. It was perfect."

Now more than ever are William and Kate keenly aware of the fleeting nature of their current arrangement: Only while the Queen, 89, remains on the throne is William free to pursue a civilian career. "It will be short-term, as there is a lot ahead of them," says the friend. After William's father, Prince Charles, ascends, things will change dramatically. "It won't be a normal family life five days a week," adds the friend. "They are enjoying their time in Norfolk while it lasts."

And the locals are thoroughly enjoying the new family in town. Waving to fans at the christening, "they had a real connection with the crowd," says Pauline Richmond, one of the thousands who waited in the rain for a glimpse of the royals. "It was absolutely magical."

With Monique Jessen

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: TIM GRAHAM/GETTY IMAGES; REX/SHUTTERSTOCK; FAMEFLYNET; MARY TURNER/ROYAL ROTA/ROYALFOTO/IPHOTO; TIM GRAHAM/GETTY IMAGES; PA PHOTOS/LANDOV

HEART HEALTH FOR THOSE WITH HEART

Scientific evidence suggests, but does not prove, that eating 1.5 ounces per day of most nuts, such as almonds, as part of a diet low in saturated fat and cholesterol may reduce the risk of heart disease. A one-ounce handful has 13g of unsaturated fat and only 1g of saturated fat.

There's a passion for life in the crunch of almonds.
Get 6g of protein, 4g of fiber and essential nutrients in every heart-healthy handful to really bring it all day, every day.

Learn more at Almonds.com.

American Heart Association CERTIFIED Meets Criteria For Heart-Healthy Food

Per one-ounce serving.

© 2015 Almond Board of California. All rights reserved.

california almonds®
CRUNCH ON

Playing with Fire
An "inappropriate" and "out of it" Disick got close to stylist Chloe Bartoli in Monte Carlo July 2, according to a witness.

KOURTNEY & SCOTT SPLIT 6 MONTHS AFTER BABY

WHY SHE ENDED IT

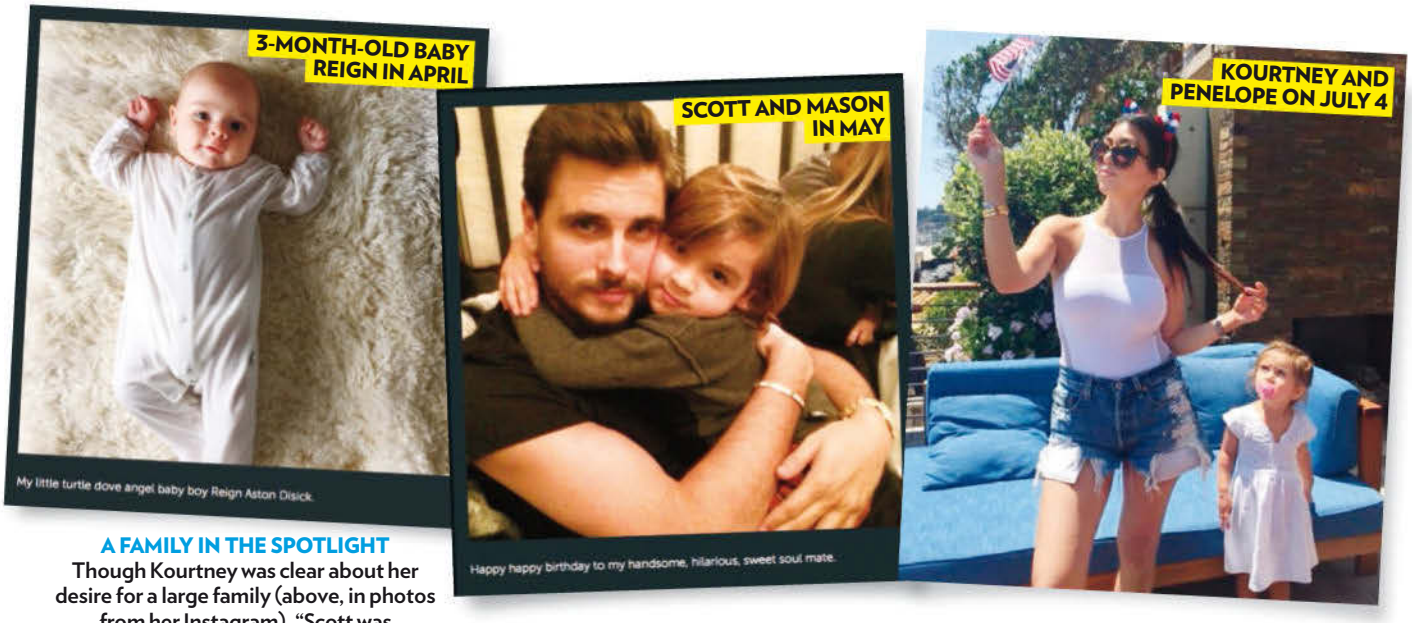

After standing by her troubled boyfriend Scott Disick for years, Kourtney Kardashian ends the relationship after he is photographed with another woman. Says a source: 'He threw it all away' BY AILI NAHAS

For Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick, the most consistent part of their roller-coaster romance—played out on-camera for eight years for her family's reality series Keeping Up with the Kardashians—has been the drama. This past year the pair welcomed a new baby but also coped with Disick's hospitalization for alcohol poisoning and subsequent stints in rehab. But even in reality TV, there are limits. Over the Fourth of July weekend, photos emerged of Disick cozying up to a young brunette in the South of France while Kardashian was at home taking care

Staying Strong
Kourtney (in L.A. on July 3) "prioritizes her kids," says a Kardashian source. "They are her focus."

LEFT TO RIGHT: SPLASHNEWS(2); RAAK/AKM-GSI

A FAMILY IN THE SPOTLIGHT
Though Kourtney was clear about her desire for a large family (above, in photos from her Instagram), "Scott was never really ready to be a dad," says a source. "But he loved his kids."

of their three young children. Her friends say that pushed her to finally cancel the Kourtney and Scott show. "It was the last straw," says a source close to the couple. "He was supposed to be taking some time to process things, presumably with the endgame of fixing their relationship. The bottom line is, Scott threw it all away." A rep for Disick did not return requests for comment.

Disick's bad behavior came as no surprise to many who have watched the fast-talking reality star, who has a penchant for letting loose. The New York native earns much of his money from club appearances and is often captured drinking to excess on Keeping Up with the Kardashians (see box, below). Multiple sources confirm that Disick, 32, has struggled with issues related to partying too hard; his acknowledged alcohol abuse became the source of nonstop fights with Kardashian, 36, on- and off-camera. "He would screw up, then apologize, and Kourtney would always make him pay for a couple weeks. Then things would go back to the way they were," says a source close to the couple. "They never dealt with the underlying issues. Scott gets freaked out by confrontation; he never dealt with his real problems."

But it was Disick's brazen behavior in France—he was photographed drinking and caressing L.A.-based stylist Chloe Bartoli—that convinced Kardashian that the relationship could not be saved. (The pair never married.) "She was over dealing with Scott's constant lies," says a pal. Kardashian famously banned him from the Calabasas, Calif., home they shared with kids Mason, 5, Penelope, 3, and Reign, 6 months, whenever he was inebriated—and often had to enforce that rule. "It was becoming a poor environment for the kids to be raised in," says the friend. "She was devastated about the situation, but she needs to protect herself and her family."

Another source close to the situation says the relationship was never ideal: "They've always had problems." Disick was "overwhelmed" by the idea of being a family man, says the source. "He rebels against the responsibility of having three kids. He acts out, drinks too much and embarrasses Kourtney."

And as his own fame grew, the self-annointed "Lord" Disick, who is known for flashy cars and ostentatious style, seemed to be increasingly troubled. Last year he lost both of his parents in the span of three months and copped to abusing alcohol and prescription pills; one binge, captured for KUWTK, landed him in the hospital. Two brief rehab stays followed, but Disick checked himself out each time. Yet Kardashian remained optimistic, telling People in March, "The thing that's most important to me is his commitment to working on himself."

Now, despite her wealth and the support of her famous family, she is facing a hard new reality: life as a single mom of three. "Bottom line: Her children are her first priority," says the Kardashian pal. "She was willing to sacrifice her relationship to keep them safe."

With Steve Helling and Melody Chiu

SCOTT'S VERY PUBLIC STRUGGLE

ONCE JUST A SMART-MOUTHED REALITY SIDEKICK, DISICK HAS BECOME INFAMOUS FOR OUT-OF-CONTROL ANTICS—CAPTURED ON-CAMERA

2009 Drunk in Vegas, Scott shoved a $100 bill in a waiter's mouth as a pregnant Kourtney looked on.

2010 Mason was just a few months old when a drunken Scott punched a mirror in Miami and was hospitalized.

2014 After mixing prescription pills with booze in the Hamptons, Scott was treated for alcohol poisoning.

WORLD CUP STAR CARLI LLOYD

American Hero!

LED BY SOCCER'S NEWEST SUPERSTAR, THE U.S. WOMEN'S TEAM FINALLY BRINGS THE TROPHY BACK HOME

BY JOHNNY DODD

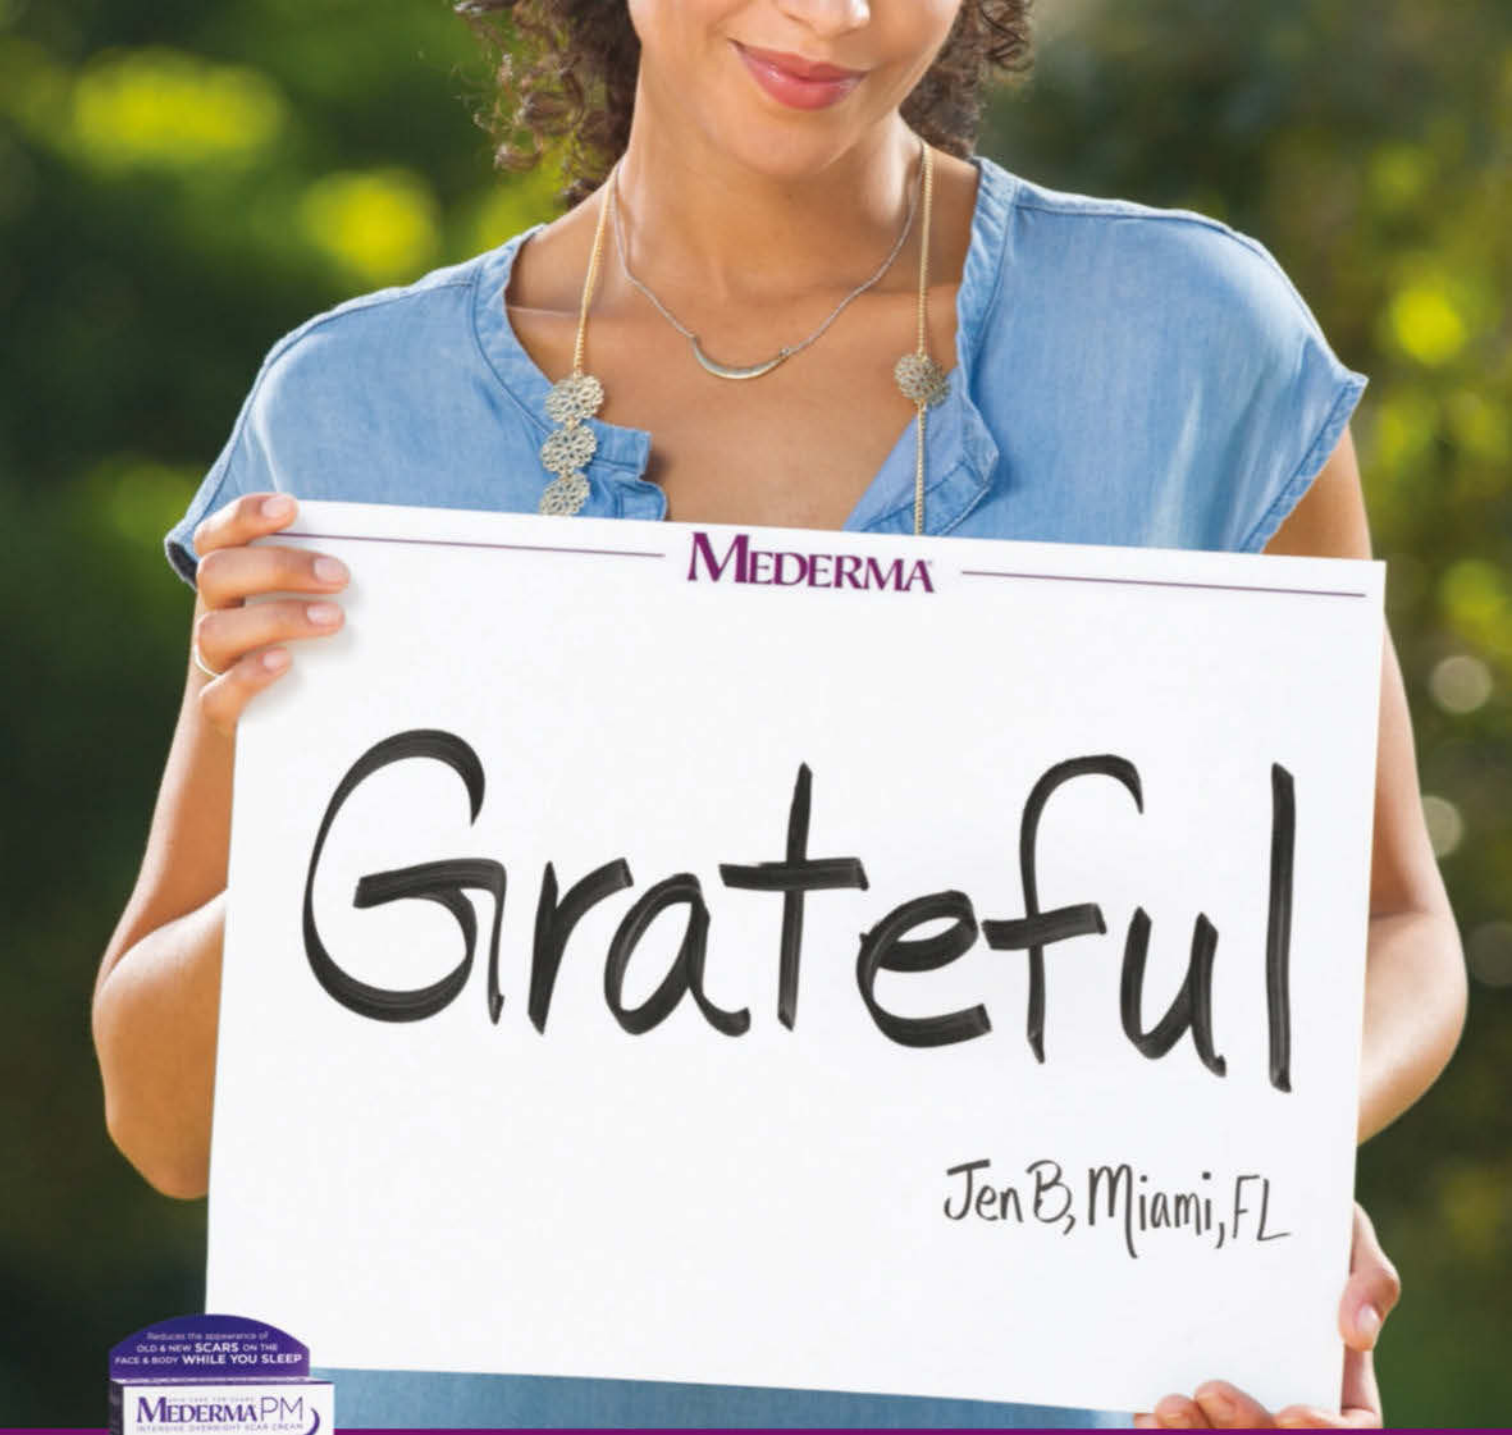

Step aside, Captain America. The U.S. has a new superhero on the scene: 33-year-old soccer midfielder Carli Lloyd, who led the U.S. Women's National Team to its first World Cup championship in 16 years with a three-goal performance on July 5 that included a jaw-dropping 50-yd. kick over the head of a bewildered Japanese goalkeeper. "She's just a beast," said coach Jill Ellis. "She's unbelievable, a rock star." Lloyd—a New Jersey native who's been playing soccer since she was 5—could also barely believe it. "I was on a mission," she said following the team's crushing 5-2 victory in Vancouver. "We just wrote history today and brought the World Cup trophy home." That quest to regain soccer's most coveted title has been a long one, with Lloyd and the rest of her teammates living in the shadows of the U.S.'s World Cup-winning 1999 team. Lloyd & Co. came up just short in 2011, falling to Japan in the final. For this shot at redemption, the two-time Olympic gold medalist even insisted that family and friends (including her fiancé, golf pro Brian Hollins) stay home—an attempt to keep her "solely focused on my job." So how will she celebrate now that it's all over? "I don't think it's entirely sunk in yet," she told reporters. "I might just have to sit inside my house for a few days." ●

#LetsGoGirls! Carli Lloyd and her U.S. teammates (including goalie Hope Solo, below) celebrate after the U.S. team's rout of Japan on July 5.

CLOCKWISE FROM LEFT: STUART FRANKLIN/FIFA/GETTY IMAGES; BEN NELMS/EPA; ERICH SCHLEGEL/USA TODAY SPORTS/REUTERS

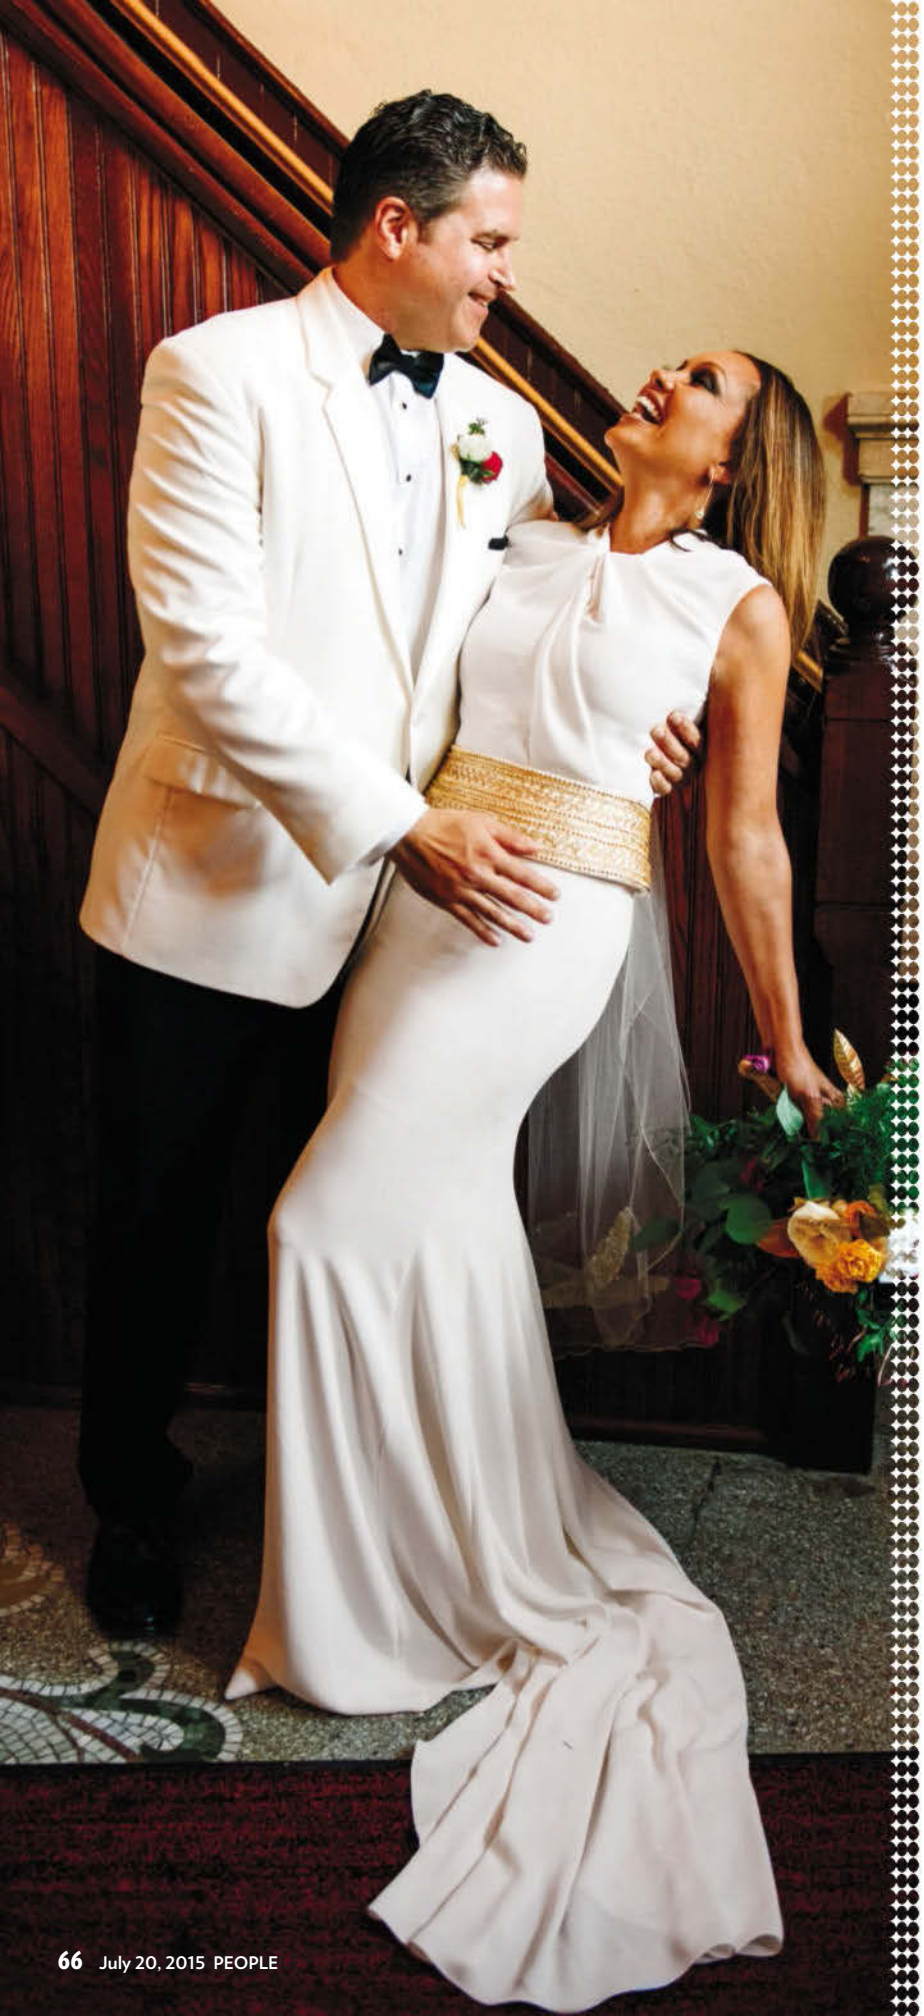

One word expresses Jen's appreciation since Mederma® helped her scar look better. It's clinically shown to improve the color, texture, and overall appearance of scars with results guaranteed, or your money back. Because for scars, there's just one word to know: Mederma®.

See Jen's story and others like hers at Mederma.com/testimonials.

#1 SELLING SCAR BRAND[1] • #1 DOCTOR RECOMMENDED[2]

[1]Nielsen data, xAOC scar market dollar share, current 52 weeks ending December 20, 2014. [2]IMS Health, NDTI. December 2014.
Jen is a real Mederma® user who has been compensated to share her story.

©/®/™ 2015 Merz North America, Inc.

VANESSA WILLIAMS WEDS

HER DREAM DAY

THE ACTRESS MARRIES BUSINESSMAN JIM SKRIP IN A LAVISH EGYPTIAN-THEMED WEDDING

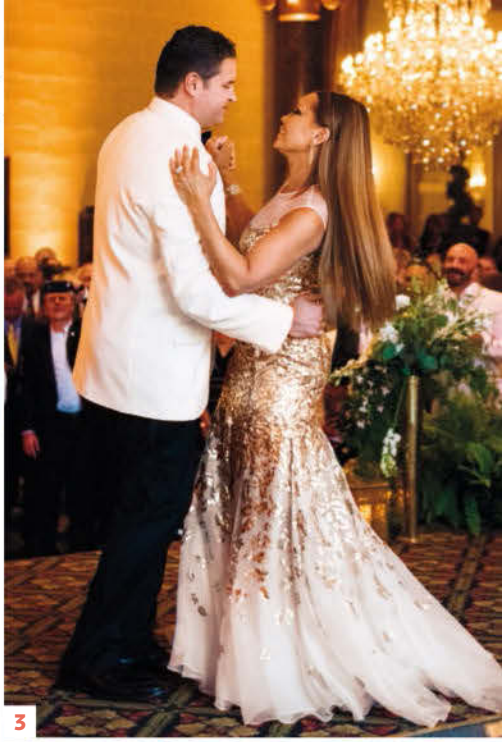

BY MELODY CHIU

She tied the knot on the Fourth of July, but Vanessa Williams's wedding to businessman Jim Skrip felt "like a piece of Egypt," says the star, who met her new husband while vacationing there in 2012. The Middle Eastern-style bash—held at the Statler City banquet hall in Skrip's hometown of Buffalo—featured belly dancers and whirling dervishes. But it was Williams who stole the show, serenading Skrip with a song called "My Jim" to the tune of the ballad "Bill," from the Broadway musical Show Boat. "It nailed his personality," says the Ugly Betty star, 52. It also was a hit with the groom, who is the same age. Williams walked down the aisle in a Carmen Marc Valvo gown for a special mass in Buffalo's historic St. Stanislaus Catholic Church, where Skrip's parents wed decades ago. "We locked eyes, and I got caught up in the moment, full of happiness and joy," Skrip says. "She was stunning." Then she changed into another Valvo creation to exchange rings and party with 390 guests, including Williams's fellow Desperate Housewife Teri Hatcher, Ugly Betty castmate Ana Ortiz and theater pal Condola Rashad. Earlier in the weekend the pair hosted a "Welcome to Buffalo" gathering that paid homage to the groom's beloved city and their international love story. "Jim's solid, romantic and a real man with integrity who knows who he is," says Williams. "Everything has been absolutely perfect."

Photographs by BRIAN HATTON

A REGAL RECEPTION

1. "It was magnificent," says Williams of her second dress. "It looks like metal, but they're little petals made out of leather." 2. "It was a dance party!" says the star, who was on the floor until 2 a.m. with Skrip. 3. The newlyweds shared their first dance to Chicago's "Saturday in the Park." 4. Local wedding planner Carla Measer-Costamagna decorated the ballroom with tents, Moroccan lanterns and colorful flowers. 5. Dessert included a custom cake and gold cupcakes by local bakery Muscoreil's.

2002
"I had a great life before I got sick," says Lisa (during her modeling days).

FROM
MODELING
TO INTENSIVE CARE

'I'm Starving to Dea

MAY 20, 2015
"The pain is always there," says Lisa (at the Cleveland Clinic in May). "By 5 or 6 p.m. each day it's so bad I can't do anything."

'Life is a gift, and I don't take anything for granted. Every day matters'
—LISA BROWN

th and I Can't Help It'

A RARE DISEASE HAS WHITTLED LISA BROWN DOWN TO 94 LBS., BUT SHE REFUSES TO STOP HOPING FOR A CURE

By CAITLIN KEATING

Photographs by
KATHERINE WOLKOFF

On a recent Sunday, Lisa Brown and her mother spent the morning at Peet's, their favorite local coffee shop in nearby Waukesha, Wis. "People are so kind and considerate there," says her mother, Patricia Neuhauser, 66. At 5′10″ tall, Lisa, who was once a robust 140 lbs., now weighs just 94 lbs. and is hooked up to a feeding device 20 hours a day. On her brief excursions out, she's frequently the target of cruel comments, so the coffee shop is a treasured safe haven. "People come up to her and tell her, 'Eat a burger' or 'Why are you starving yourself?' " says her mom. Lisa, 32, has learned to take the comments in stride. "At first I would say stuff back and defend myself," she says. "I've come to understand that people will say mean stuff, but I know the truth."

The truth is, despite her skeletal appearance, Lisa isn't anorexic, nor does she have any other type of eating disorder. For reasons doctors are just now coming to understand, she simply can't keep food down. "I'm starving to death and I can't help it," the former model and substance abuse counselor tells People. "I'm in pain most of the day." In December 2013 doctors at Froedtert Hospital in Milwaukee diagnosed her with superior mesenteric artery syndrome, a rare digestive-system disorder where part of the small intestine is pinched, blocking food from getting through. After a corrective surgery didn't help, doctors were at a loss as to what else was wrong. Now, after a grueling 18-month medical odyssey (see box) and a new series of tests, Lisa finally has a diagnosis: gastroparesis. "Her stomach doesn't work properly," says Dr. Matthew Kroh, director of surgical endoscopy at the Cleveland Clinic in Ohio, where Lisa recently spent 3½ weeks. She will return to the Cleveland Clinic soon, and "we will put a feeding tube in her and start medical treatment," he says. "It's great we now know what's wrong besides the SMA, but she still has a long road ahead."

Growing up in Brookfield, Wis., where she still resides, Lisa was a normal, healthy kid with a wide group of friends who never worried about her weight. An only child, she landed a modeling gig in Italy for a few months in high school, then got a full scholarship to Waukesha County Technical College. "The worst thing she ever did was skip class once," Neuhauser says. "She really was a perfect kid." In February 2006 she left work to get her car's oil changed and met Patrick, now her husband, who was an auto mechanic at the time. On St. Patrick's Day they went on their first date. "I instantly liked him," Lisa says. "I even asked him out first." The couple married in May 2010, then honeymooned in Playa del Carmen, Mexico. "I was really just so happy," she says.

Married to the love of her life, Lisa felt like she finally had it all. "We were very active socially, I was actively involved in the art community making jewelry, and our careers were really taking off as well," she says. The following summer the couple began noticing something was amiss. "The first thing I noticed was that I started not being able to eat as much," she says. "I was a big eater. I loved to cook. I loved food." But she shrugged it off. "I just wasn't thinking much about it," she says. "I didn't even own a scale, so I couldn't track my weight." Then she noticed her clothing started to become loose on her 140-lb. frame. "I kept telling her, 'You need to go to the doctor,'" says Patrick, 31, an engineer. "I knew it wasn't normal."

'My daughter is the strongest person I have ever met'
—PATRICIA NEUHAUSER

Each month Lisa slowly continued to get worse, vomiting after every meal and not being able to move from severe stomach pain. After acid reflux medication didn't solve the problem, Lisa decided to weigh herself at her mother's home. "I looked at the scale and said, 'This can't be right,'" she says. "It said 112 lbs. Never in my adult life had I ever been this weight." After seeing numerous specialists and being told "It's all in your head," she was finally diagnosed with SMA syndrome and had the corrective surgery in February 2014. "I was very close to death," she says. Afterward "I started gaining weight and feeling like myself again," says Lisa. But it didn't last long. Right after they got back from their annual trip to Mexico in May, "she started to get sick," Patrick says. "It was heartbreaking."

By July, Lisa was on a feeding device 20 hours a day, and too weak to do much, so her mother, who lives down the block, began coming by daily when Patrick was away. "She can't clean the house or even change the linens," Neuhauser says. "I do that for her." During what she calls her "four hours of freedom," from 8 a.m. to noon each day (when she's not hooked up to a machine), Lisa tries to run simple errands. The rest of the time she spends reading, chatting in a Facebook support group and drawing. "I have a garden in my backyard with lilies of all different colors," she says. "I am too weak to work on my garden now, but my mom helps me with it."

Lisa mostly wears skirts because most women's pants don't fit her anymore. Even her one-of-a-kind pink sapphire wedding ring is too big, so it's tucked 2007 "My mom is my best friend," says Lisa (with Neuhauser at a family lunch).

2010 "Lisa is the best thing that ever happened to me," says Patrick. "I can't imagine my life without her."

2012 "I know I will never be the same person I was," says Lisa (at a Christmas party in Milwaukee). "I'm okay with that."

HAIR AND MAKEUP: MARIELLA VITALONE/ZENOBIA; FIRST PAGE: BRIAN DALLY; LEFT: (2007 & 2012) COURTESY LISA AND PATRICK BROWN; (2010) JACK NEUHAUSER

2015
"My mother is amazing, and she holds me up," says Lisa (with Neuhauser at the Cleveland Clinic).

away in their safe for the time being. In January, desperately trying to save her own life, Lisa released an 11-minute video about her ordeal on YouTube. "I want people to know they're not alone," she says. "I have to advocate for myself, but I also have to advocate for other people who don't know why they're wasting away."

That video ultimately landed her in the care of the Cleveland Clinic. Too weak to get on a commercial flight or in a car for more than a short drive, Lisa accepted a local business's offer to fly her on their company jet for her first visit. "I couldn't breathe, I was so stunned and happy," she says. "I wouldn't have survived otherwise." She spent a "bittersweet" Mother's Day with her mom the day before she left. "I thought it might be my last Mother's Day with her, but I prayed it wouldn't be," she says. "It was very emotional."

Lisa's Medical Journey

In February 2014 Milwaukee doctors performed a corrective surgery on Lisa that involved creating a new passageway for food and digestive juices to bypass the blockage in her small intestine. It's a procedure that worked for 11 of 14 patients with SMA syndrome Dr. Kroh has operated on but did not work for Lisa. "We were back to square one," she says. In January her mother sent local media coverage of Lisa's plight to the Cleveland Clinic, which is how she ended up in the care of Dr. Kroh in mid-May. "I gave her an upper endoscopy, and everything looked normal," he says. "So I put a SmartPill in her, which passes through her and measures acid-base changes." The results, which just came back in late June, confirmed what he'd suspected. "She has SMA syndrome, but it's secondary to gastroparesis, which simply means her stomach isn't doing its job. Besides the feeding tube, she may have surgeries ahead of her to help her stomach empty better," he says. "I think long-term there are some successful therapies that can help her."

They spent the morning at Peet's coffee shop, where Lisa showered her mom with gifts. "She actually started giving them to me a couple of weeks early," Neuhauser says. "She couldn't help it. It was all Vera Bradley, which I really like. She really went overboard."

Meanwhile their medical expenses continue to climb, another source of stress for Lisa. "I cry just thinking about it," she says. "I'm afraid to get the mail because of the bills." The family started a fund-raising site (www.gofundme.com/lisabrown) to help defray the costs.

On June 3 Lisa came home from Cleveland with something more than just a few much-needed extra pounds: hope. The diagnosis lifted her spirits even more. "Finally, for the first time, I feel like there is a light at the end of the tunnel," she says. And that pink sapphire wedding ring? "I will wear it again," she says. "I know it and I can't wait." ●

ELIMINATES ODORS FOR 10 DAYS

Guaranteed

For complete terms and conditions, see freshstep.com/guarantee

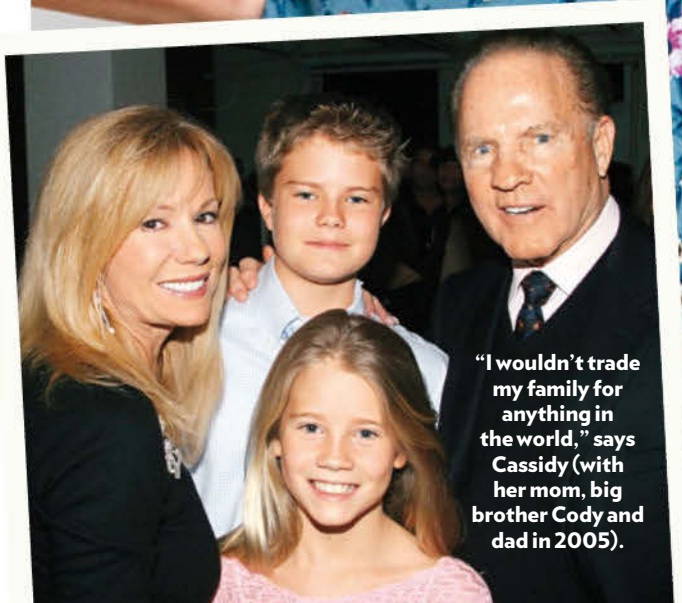

That's something even cats find amazing.

KATHIE LEE'S DAUGHTER

Growing Up Famous

CASSIDY GIFFORD OPENS UP ABOUT HER NORMAL CHILDHOOD, HER FIRST LEADING ROLE AND WHY SHE LOVES HER FAMILY

BY JEFF NELSON

"I wouldn't trade my family for anything in the world," says Cassidy (with her mom, big brother Cody and dad in 2005).

Americans heard about Cassidy Gifford in full detail back in the '90s when her mom hosted Live with Regis and Kathie Lee. When Kathie Lee left the show in 2000, however, Cassidy was only in kindergarten. Now all grown up and starring in her first leading role as a mean girl cheerleader in the new horror movie The Gallows, Cassidy says that her mom still has the capacity to embarrass her: "One time I called her, and she just happened to have her phone for a Today show segment and held it up and was like, 'Oh, Cassidy's calling me!' She opens up her old, little, dinosaur flip phone, and of course the cameras zoom in, and there was my number! All of a sudden I had hundreds of creepy texts."

STEPHANIE DIANI; INSET: BRUCE GLIKAS/FILMMAGIC

Legal Notice

If You Own or Owned Property That Contains High Zinc Content Brass Plumbing Products

You Could Benefit From a Class Action Lawsuit

There is a Settlement in a class action lawsuit filed against Uponor Inc., Wirsbo Company, and Uponor Wirsbo Inc. ("Uponor") and certain developers/builders, subcontractors, and distributors/suppliers ("Other Defendants"). The lawsuit claims that Uponor's high zinc content brass plumbing fittings and components are defective and prematurely corrode (or break down). Uponor and the Other Defendants deny these claims and that they did anything wrong.

Who is included in the Settlement?

Generally, you may be included in the Settlement if your home, non-residential property, or the common area of your home or property located in the United States, built in 2002 or later, contains Uponor brand fittings and plumbing components made of high zinc content brass ("Uponor Yellow Brass Fittings"). A separate settlement involving properties in Las Vegas, Nevada has been reached. (Get more info at the website below.)

What does the Settlement provide?

Eligible property owners can get benefits for certain property damage, such as leaks or flow problems. This includes reimbursement for past repairs and repairs that become necessary in the future. The Settlement will also pay (1) the costs of notice and administration, (2) special service awards to the Class Representatives, and (3) attorneys' fees and costs.

How can I get benefits?

Submit a Claim Form by mail. The timing to file a claim varies. However, if you previously had property damage, you need to file a claim within six months after the Settlement is approved. For future property damage, you will need to file a claim within six months after the damage occurs. The amount of any benefits you may receive will depend on the amount and type of included property that you own and the damage you have experienced and/or repairs or replacement needed. The claims period will run for five years from when the Settlement is approved. Additional details are in the Settlement Agreement available on the website.

What are my rights?

Even if you do nothing, you will be bound by the Court's decisions. If you want to keep your right to sue Uponor and/or the Other Defendants yourself, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement by August 19, 2015. You will give up the possibility of receiving Settlement benefits, but you will not be bound by the Court's orders. If you stay in the Settlement, you may object to it by August 19, 2015. Additional details on how to opt out or object are in the Settlement Agreement available on the website.

The Court will hold a hearing on September 8, 2015 to consider whether to approve the Settlement, a request for attorneys' fees and costs up to $7.5 million, and special service payments of $5,000 per home or homeowners' association to each of the Class Representatives. You or your own lawyer may appear and speak at the hearing at your own expense.

For More Information: 1-866-483-0374
www.BrassFittingsClass.com

1. "We're the most normal family on the planet," says Cassidy (with her mom in '12). 2. "I always liked being scared," says Cassidy (in The Gallows). 3. With her mom and family pals Kendall Jenner and Kim and Kourtney Kardashian (in '11).

CLOCKWISE FROM FAR RIGHT: STEPHANIE DIANI; SETH POPPEL/YEARBOOK LIBRARY; THOMAS CONCORDIA/WIREIMAGE; COURTESY WARNER BROS.; BRIAN DOBEN

'I love my family but want my career to be independent of my parents' —CASSIDY GIFFORD

Cassidy knew she wanted to be an actress in the first grade, after starring in a school production of The Three Little Pigs (she played "the smart one with the brick house" and is still best friends with the girls who played the other pigs). Her mom "could not have been more supportive," says Cassidy. "She said, 'Okay, but you have to give it your all, or you're not gonna give it anything.'"

Cassidy, now 21, enrolled in classes at New York's prestigious Lee Strasberg Theatre & Film Institute after school. By 11, she'd booked her first TV role—a guest appearance on That's So Raven, which she snagged after reading lines with the director on a set visit with her mom. But it wasn't until she moved from the family's home in Greenwich, Conn., to L.A. in 2012 that she began to focus on acting as a career. She followed brother Cody, now 25, to the University of Southern California, where dad Frank Gifford had been a football star from 1949 to 1951. (An English major, she's currently taking a break from classes to do press and work.) "The main thing for my parents was they wanted me to stay in school and just live a normal childhood, which I wouldn't trade for anything in the world," she says.

Sure enough, her life now has plenty of ordinary moments: She shares selfies with her boyfriend on Instagram, spends downtime reading and writing and can't resist poking fun at a tech-challenged parent (Frank, 84, "clumps everything together—texting, Facebook, Twitter—and calls it 'podcasting'"). And yet her background brings with it certain perks, like a long-standing friendship with the Kardashians, whom Cassidy calls "some of the kindest, most generous people in the world.... My mom always said that when I moved out to L.A., Kris would be the first person to be there if I needed something." As for Mom and Dad (who enjoyed and were "terrified" by The Gallows), they think she's doing just fine. "Cassidy has been working so hard for so long to reach this new stage in her career," says Kathie Lee, who adds that her daughter "has a wisdom beyond her years." Case in point? Her haters-gonna-hate mentality. "I've grown up my entire life having people make judgments on me," Cassidy says. "As long as you're grounded, then nobody else's opinion should matter." ●

Lookalikes!

Cassidy inherited her wholesome looks from Kathie Lee (left, at age 17 in 1971), but she does not take after her mother in every respect. "I do not share the same love of wine," admits Cassidy, whose mom famously observes Winesdays on Kathie Lee & Hoda. "I do like it! But I rarely drink that much. It's a crime in my family: If you come to our home, you're kind of forced to have a glass."

IT'S LIKE YOUR TONGUE CRASHED INTO A CHOCOLATY, PEANUTY, CARAMEL ICEBERG.

ICE CREAM SATISFACTION

®/™ Trademarks © Mars, Incorporated 2015.

Summer ENTERTAINING WITH THE Stars

THESE FOOD-LOVING CELEBRITIES THROW HIGH-STYLE, LOW-STRESS PARTIES—AND REVEAL THEIR FAVORITE RECIPES FOR THE SEASON

By ANA CALDERONE & MICHELLE WARD TRAINOR

HAIR AND MAKEUP: DEBRA FERULLO/FLOWER BEAUTY/TRACEY MATTINGLY. FOOD AND PROP STYLIST: ANGELA B GAINES

Photographs by JOE PUGLIESE

Wine & Grilled Cheese with DREW BARRYMORE

'A bottle of wine and good food really do bring people together,' says the actress and avid hostess

Barrymore enjoys an alfresco lunch with friends in Los Angeles.

When Drew Barrymore steps up to the stove to make dinner in her Los Angeles home, the scene in her kitchen is not as glamorous as you might expect. "With a kid running around, baby on my hip, it's kind of a mess," she says. But there is no doubt learning to feed a family of four has given the actress—mom to daughters Olive, 2½, and Frankie, 1, with her art-adviser husband, Will Kopelman—a certain culinary ease. "I'm very organized about the kids' food. They get protein, starch and veggies, and I always balance it out," she says. But, she admits, she's also a "normal" parent: "If I'm rushing and I need something quick, I'll happily throw fish sticks in the toaster oven for lunch. Sometimes it's really elaborate, and sometimes it's frozen and quick—but always healthy."

These days Barrymore, 40, has serious foodie cred, whether she's attending classes at the prestigious Culinary Institute of America in Napa Valley with famous friends Cameron Diaz and Reese Witherspoon, cooking with chefs like Eric Ripert or presenting at Aspen's Food & Wine Classic in June. Still, the actress insists she really shines during intimate dinners with her girlfriends. "We cook together a lot on Sunday nights, and it's a group effort," she says. "I'm really good in a potluck situation, and I'm really good at one-pot meals. I love pastas, soups, salads. Those wonderful one-bowl, have-a-drink-

1. Sipping on a cocktail at Blue Hill at Stone Barns in Pocantico Hills, N.Y.
2. Enjoying a traditional Japanese breakfast on her #TokyoFoodTour.
3. Displaying an array of Chinese dishes during Fashion Week.
4. Presenting the ricotta ravioli she made at the Culinary Institute of America.

© 2015 Kraft Foods

Oscar Mayer

MADE WITH
99%	Accent
1%	Chair

MADE WITH
100%	Turkey Breast

Sometimes life can get complicated.
Your sandwich doesn't have to be.
#sanewich

It's Deli Quality Every Time. It's Oscar Mayer.

'Pinot grigio is like my first crush. It made the world luxurious and romantic' with type of foods have always been my favorite."

Now that the star has created her own wine, Barrymore by Carmel Road pinot grigio, finding foods to pair with it—like her apple, Brie and arugula grilled cheese (right)—has also become a hobby. "Other than being a parent, food, friendship and wine are the best things there are," she says. And as she prepares to expand the business with new varietals (including her new Drew's Blend pinot noir, available in September), tasting wines and having blending sessions have become a welcome distraction from her acting schedule. "Creating wine is a beautiful headspace to live in," she says. "It's romantic, escapist and communal. I'm gradually making it more of my focus."

Although Barrymore has a few staple dishes under her belt—"Salmon with veggies is regular at my house," she says, "and I can grill a mean steak"—she's in no rush to master the culinary trade. "I am no lifestyle expert," she says. "And I'm not perfect in the kitchen. But I'm getting there—slowly."

With reporting by Mariah Haas in Los Angeles and Sonal Dutt in Aspen

THE PERFECT PAIRING

"As I was developing this grilled cheese recipe, I really wanted to bring out the green apple notes in the wine," Barrymore says of her sandwich and pinot grigio pairing. "I picked up green apples and arugula at the grocery store because I love when there's a little bit of greenery and that crunch factor. The heat from the Sriracha blue cheese spread really kicks it over the edge."

"This also works well for kids if you remove the arugula and spicy spread," says Barrymore.

Apple, Brie & Arugula Grilled Cheese

'I LOVE WINE AND GRILLED CHEESE TOGETHER,' SHE SAYS. 'SERVE IT FOR BRUNCH OR AS AN APPETIZER FOR A DINNER PARTY'

- ¼ cup blue cheese
- ¼ cup walnuts
- ¼ cup honey
- 1 tbsp. Sriracha hot sauce
- 4 slices sourdough bread
- 4 oz. Brie, rind removed
- 1 green apple, cored and thinly sliced
- ½ cup arugula, roughly chopped, divided
- 4 tbsp. butter, divided

1. In a blender or food processor, combine the blue cheese, walnuts, honey and hot sauce until smooth.
2. Spread Brie on 2 slices of bread and top evenly with apple slices and arugula. Spread the blue cheese mixture on remaining slices and close the sandwich.
3. Heat a nonstick skillet or griddle over medium heat. Melt 2 tbsp. butter in the pan and cook sandwiches until golden brown, pressing down gently with a spatula. Add remaining butter to pan and carefully flip sandwiches, cooking until cheese has completely melted, about 5 minutes. Transfer sandwiches to a cutting board; let rest for 1 minute before serving.

Serves: 2
Prep time: 10 minutes
Cook time: 10 minutes

We'll bring the iced tea.
You bring the conversation.
KEEP REFRIGERATED
BREWED TASTE
GOLD PEAK TEA
ICED TEA
SWEET TEA
WITH REAL SUGAR
NO PRESERVATIVES
HOME BREWED TASTE
120
The taste that brings you home.™
© 2015 The Coca-Cola Company. GOLD PEAK and GOLD PEAK THE TASTE THAT BRINGS YOU HOME are trademarks of The Coca-Cola Company.

Backyard Cookout with MICHAEL SYMON

The restaurateur and cohost of The Chew grills a flawless outdoor feast

If chef Michael Symon had it his way, he'd spend the entire summer in front of his grill. "I'll smoke whole suckling pigs. I'll do ribs, pork butts, brisket, chicken, burgers, hot dogs," he says. "Left to my own devices, I probably would just eat meat." But sharing his home with his wife (and business partner), Liz Shanahan, a vegetarian, and his stepson Kyle, an "on-again, off-again vegetarian," forces him to expand the menu. "It gives my life an incredible amount of balance and has made me a better chef because I'm great with vegetables now," he adds. In fact, the cohost of ABC's The Chew—who will open Mabel's, his newest barbecue restaurant in Cleveland, this fall—doesn't have to go very far to incorporate other food groups. "I like to serve whatever I'm pulling out of my garden," says Symon, 45. "We grow six different varieties of heirloom tomatoes, peppers and more."

Sitting down for supper as a family has become a top priority, despite Symon's busy schedule shuttling between Cleveland (where he manages nine restaurants) and New York City (where he films). "Growing up in Ohio, we had dinner every night around the table, and it was the greatest learning experience. It's where we laughed; it's where we cried," he says. "Now with my family, whether we go out for dinner or cook at home, we sit down and eat and talk. It's an important part of the day for us." And of course the former Iron Chef jumps at the chance to man the grill during his regular summer get-togethers (which sometimes include chef buddies like Mario Batali and Bobby Flay) . . . on one condition: "I have to set up everything outside," he says. "I want to be part of the party, you know?"

"I'm a chef that does television, not a television host that cooks," says Symon.

Photographs by CHRISTOPHER TESTANI

No synthetic colors. Fact. No artificial flavors or preservatives. Fact.

Mutated turtles that live in a sewer and were taught martial arts by a rat. Okay, maybe that's fiction.

Kids love eating Kraft Mac & Cheese Shapes. Now parents will love what they're not eating. Because their favorite characters and their favorite food now have no synthetic colors, artificial flavors or preservatives.

You know you love it.

Brick Chicken with Drunken Onions

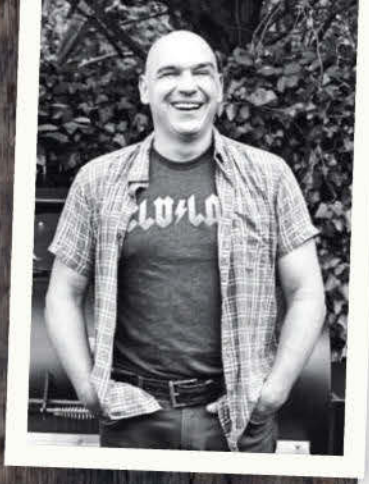

'I LOVE COOKING A WHOLE CHICKEN WITH BONES IN BECAUSE IT HAS SO MUCH MORE FLAVOR,' SAYS SYMON

- 1 3-lb. chicken, backbone cut out
- Kosher salt
- Freshly ground black pepper
- Extra-virgin olive oil
- Coriander, toasted and ground
- Barbecue sauce
- 3 small yellow onions, peeled and sliced into ½-in.-thick rounds
- 4 tbsp. unsalted butter, melted
- 2 tsp. freshly grated ginger
- 2 tbsp. bourbon
- 1 tbsp. dark brown sugar

1. The night before, season chicken on both sides with salt and pepper. Place in a gallon-size bag and refrigerate overnight. The next day remove chicken from the fridge and let the chill come off of it, about 30 minutes.

2. Preheat a grill or grill pan to medium-high heat. Wrap 2 bricks in aluminum foil and set aside. Drizzle chicken with olive oil and season with coriander before placing on the grill, skin side down. Place the bricks on top of the chicken and put the lid down. Cook for 12 minutes, then remove the bricks and flip the chicken over. Replace the bricks on top of the chicken, put the lid down, and cook for another 25 minutes, brushing with barbecue sauce in the last 5 minutes of cooking. Remove the chicken to a cutting board to rest for a full 10 minutes, tented with foil.

3. Divide the onions evenly into 2 foil packets, separating the rings as you go.

In a small bowl stir together the melted butter, ginger and bourbon. Pour the mixture over the onions, then season with salt and pepper, and sprinkle brown sugar on top. Seal the packets, then place on the grill over medium heat with the lid down for 15 minutes, until the onions are soft, slightly caramelized and cooked through. To serve, carve the chicken into four pieces, and spoon the onions on the top.

Serves: 4
Prep time: 20 minutes, plus chilling
Cook time: 50 minutes

BONUS! Get the chef's Mustard Barbecue Sauce recipe at people.com/greatideas

Michael's 3-STEP GUIDE

1 PREP "Cut the backbone out of the bird—or ask your butcher for a spatchcock chicken—and press flat."

2 GRILL "Use a brick to weigh down the chicken. It'll cook evenly and allow the skin to get super crispy."

3 FINISH "Brush on the sauce during the last five minutes of cooking so that flavor gets right into the meat."

GROOMING: JAMIE DORNAN/JBTP.COM; FOOD STYLING: BARRETT WASHBURNE

©ConAgra Foods, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

GOBS OF RESIDUE.

GOBS OF FREE TIME.

BARGAIN BRAND

PAM

*vs. leading brands of cooking spray (except olive oil), after spraying on glass bakeware, baking at 400˚F for 30 min, cooling, washing in standard home dishwasher with detergent and repeating 4 times.

pamcookingspray.com

Cocktails on the Beach with HANNAH HART

The star of YouTube's My Drunk Kitchen knows that food and fun are always a delicious combination

"I can't say that I pair drinks and food with any level of expertise—only enthusiasm," says Hart.

YouTube star Hannah Hart never intended to be famous. "It was a total accident," she says of the success of her culinary-meets-comedy series My Drunk Kitchen, in which she cooks recipes while tipsy. But after posting a home video she filmed for a friend in 2011, Hart says, "strangers were writing in the comment section like, 'I can't wait for episode 2. This is my new favorite show online.' At the time I had no idea what any of that meant. Did I know I could film myself getting drunk and cooking and edit it together again? Yeah, I could!" More than 2 million subscribers—and a bestselling book, My Drunk Kitchen—later, Hart's blend of witty (intoxicated) commentary and relat-

Photographs AMANDA MARSALIS

HAIR AND MAKEUP: GEOFFREY RODRIGUEZ. FOOD AND PROP STYLIST: ACI LANDA/ZENOBIA

the
GRILL
CRASHERS
READY OR NOT
HERE THEY COME
Pina Colada Ribeye
Bone-in Pork Chops
Bacon BBQ
New York Pork Chops
Basil-Garlic
Porterhouse Pork Chops
pork
Be inspired® pork checkoff.
©2015 National Pork Board, Des Moines, IA USA. This message funded by America's Pork Producers and the Pork Checkoff.
PorkBeInspired.com/GrillCrashers

Watermelon Margaritas

Freeze 2½ cups seedless watermelon chunks overnight. When ready to serve, combine the frozen watermelon, 6 tbsp. freshly squeezed lime juice, ½ cup tequila and ½ cup sugar in a blender. Add some ice if desired. Blend and pour into glasses, garnishing each with a lime wheel or watermelon wedge.
Makes: 6-8 drinks

'The YouTube community is close-knit. It's collaborative, not competitive' able cooking skills ("I've gone from pathetic to par") has solidified her as one of the country's top food personalities. "The fact that I'm at this point in my career and [my show] is at the root of it is one of the happiest and most unexpected developments of my entire life," says Hart, who originally wanted to become a Japanese translator. Now the 28-year-old is welcoming celebrity guests and viewers into her L.A.-area studio kitchen (see box). "Cooking is a very communal activity," she says. "I think that's why I'm drawn to it." Hart, who is gay, also doles out self-help advice and feels a responsibility to be a role model to her many fans. "I'm fortunate enough to be someone that people look up to, so I want to be the best version of myself." And that includes happily engaging with her viewers. "Every time I meet a person who says, 'I watch your videos,' it's always someone cool that I wouldn't mind hanging out with."

A Taste Of HANNAH'S COOKING SHOW

youtube.com/myharto

BUTTER YO S
Hart's debut video—filmed in her former N.Y.C. kitchen—has racked up more than 3.7 million views.

SEA BASS
Lance Bass cooked (and drank) with Hart in this hilarious episode featuring sea bass, of course.

POP TART
Hart, who now films in an L.A. studio, comically baked "very buttery and salty" breakfast pastries.

"ENDING HUNGER IS A POSSIBILITY. LET'S MAKE IT REAL."
- Carla Hall, Chef & TV Personality

See how Carla gives back at People.com/possibilities

AARP® Real Possibilities

IF YOU DON'T THINK

"ENDING HUNGER"

WHEN YOU THINK AARP

THEN YOU DON'T KNOW

"aarp"

AARP and AARP Foundation are taking on hunger. Right now, more than 10 million Americans 50 and over are struggling to put food on the table. That's why Drive to End Hunger teams up with local food banks to provide meals to those in need. We're also helping to end hunger through education and other short and long term solutions. So far, we've helped deliver and donate over 30 million meals as we continue to help the hungriest among us.

Find more surprising possibilities and get to know us at aarp.org/possibilities

AARP® Real Possibilities

AVOCADO RANCH
The DELICIOUS, FRESH TASTE of AVOCADO
no slicing required
Hidden Valley
AVOCADO
THE ORIGINAL
Ranch
DRESSING

StyleWatch

Tinashe and Cody Simpson.

HAILEY TEASED THE CAMPAIGN ON HER INSTAGRAM!

Denim & Supply's Buzzy New Faces

For its fall campaign, Ralph Lauren's edgier sister line tapped musicians Tinashe and Cody Simpson to remix Charles Wright's "Express Yourself"—and recruited It girls Hailey Baldwin (above, left) and Bella Hadid (above, right) to star in the video. The result? A perfect harmony of style and swagger. "It's a song you want to dance with good people to," says Hadid. See an exclusive first look at people.com/expressyourself.

Giambattista Valli for M.A.C

Celebs like Lupita Nyong'o and Amal Clooney love the flower-laden frocks by the designer. Now there's a way to wear his petals for a fraction of his gowns' price tag: with this collection of ultrapigmented matte lipsticks.

Giambattista Valli for M.A.C Lipsticks in Bianca B, Margherita and Tats, $17.50 each; maccosmetics.com

ED by Ellen DeGeneres
Original Dog Tee, $45, and Seersucker Shorts, $95; edbyellen.com

ED by Ellen DeGeneres

We're all over the comedian's line of not-so-basic basics. (Think cheeky graphic tees and preppy separates.) Each has a touch of her whimsy, like buttons stitched with her initials.

WHAT'S ON OUR STYLE RADAR

Cupcakes and Cashmere
"El Rey" Floral Print Romper, $120; shopbop.com and nordstrom.com

A Top Blogger's Fashion Line

Emily Schuman, founder of style blog Cupcakes and Cashmere, is the go-to for chic outfit inspiration. So it was only a matter of time before she designed her own laid-back pieces. Our fave? This pretty romper.

Shay Mitchell's Breezy Look

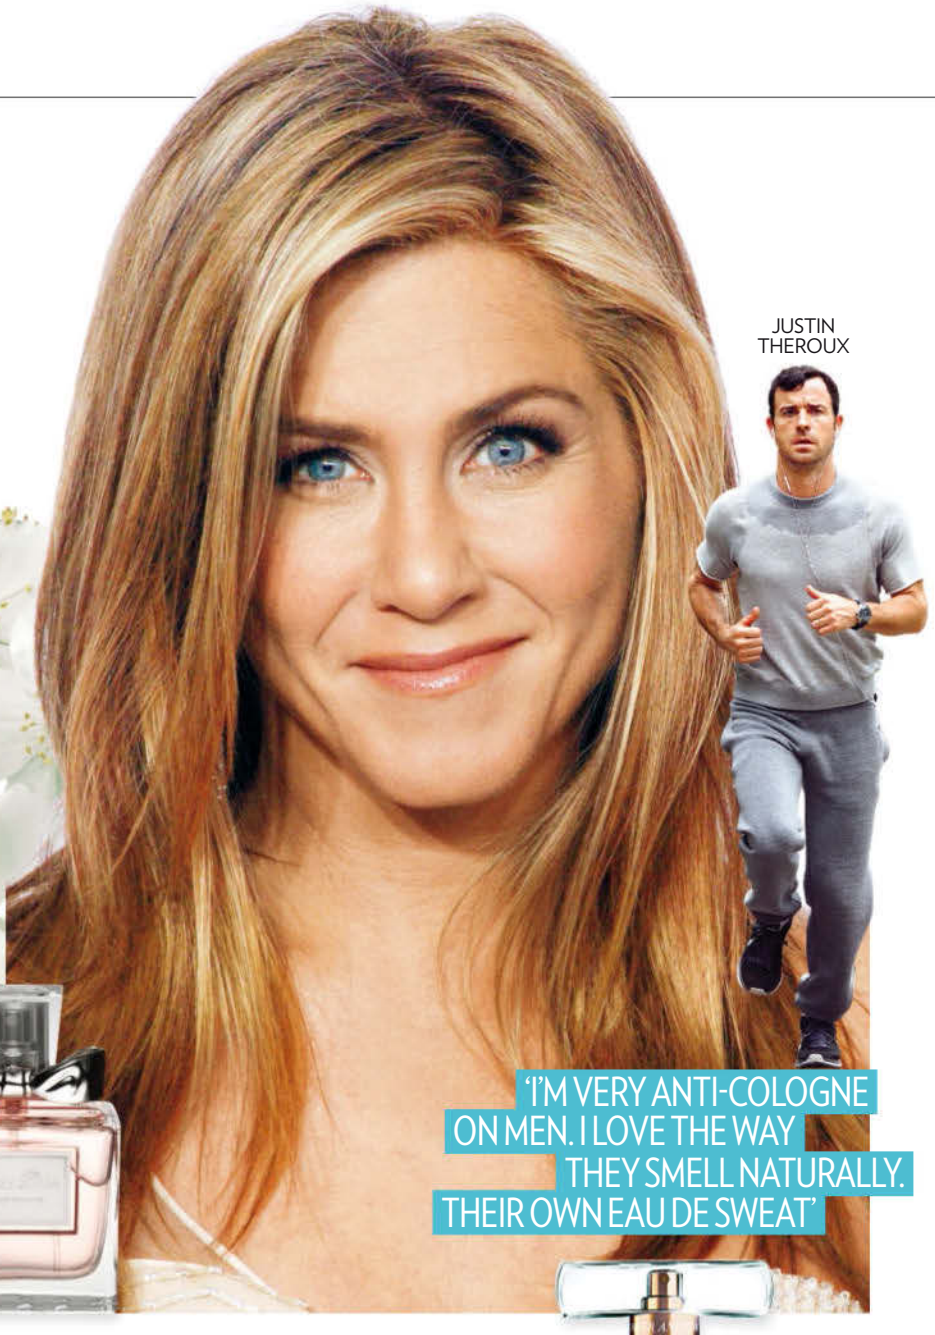

You officially have nine weeks of summer left to copy the Pretty Little Liars star's easy off-the-shoulder dress (by boho brand Tularosa) and studded gladiators combo, which she wore to a Revolve Clothing party in the Hamptons. Ticktock!

(SIMPSON & TINASHE) COURTESY DENIM & SUPPLY RALPH LAUREN; (DEGENERES) JB LACROIX/WIREIMAGE; (CUPCAKES & CASHMERE) WILL VENDRAMINI/SHOPBOP FOR CUPCAKES; (LIPSTICK SQUIGGLES) JEFFREY WESTBROOK(2); MATTHEW EISMAN/GETTY IMAGES

JENNIFER ANISTON

The Scents I Love Most

IN HONOR OF HER NEW FRAGRANCE, THE STAR SHARES HER FAVORITE AROMAS (SPOILER ALERT: EAU DE JUSTIN IS ONE OF THEM!)

JUSTIN THEROUX

Miss Dior Eau de Toilette, $98 for 3.4 oz.; dior.com

How did you get into making fragrances?
When my girlfriends began to get married, I'd bring bottles of oils to bachelorette parties. Everyone would pass around this beautiful glass antique perfume jar, and then we'd all put in drops of oil and set an intention for the bride.

What is one aroma you always recognize?
Night-blooming jasmine. I grew up in New York City, so I wasn't around flowers that much. But when I'd go to my friends' houses in the country, it was one of those smells I loved. It gives you a feeling of butterflies.

What was the first perfume you ever owned?
Miss Dior! It doesn't smell [the same] anymore, because it was literally for kids. That was the only reason my mom would let me wear it, even though I would always sneak her perfumes.

Were your parents strict about makeup?
My parents were very strict that way. They didn't want me to grow up too fast. I wasn't allowed to wear makeup until I was 15. I see kids now at 12 years old in full makeup, and I want to, like, shake them and go, "You really don't understand how fast it's about to end. Don't try to grow up!" Now I officially sound like an old person.

Who has the best-smelling home you've visited?
Wow, that's tough. Ellen [DeGeneres]. It's delicious. I can't put my finger on it. It's really earthy.

Any other places stand out to you?
I love the smell of church. Any church. I'm not religious in any way, but I do love all of those wonderful incenses.

What does Justin smell like?
I like him in natural oils. He does a sandalwood kind of smell. Maybe that's one of the things that drew me to him. He has those come-hither sandalwood pheromones happening.

'I'M VERY ANTI-COLOGNE ON MEN. I LOVE THE WAY THEY SMELL NATURALLY. THEIR OWN EAU DE SWEAT'

ALL ABOUT HER NEW SCENT
"It's called Near Dusk," Aniston says of the beach-inspired fragrance. (It contains notes of nectarine, jasmine and coconut water.) "I've been wanting to do more of a nighttime fragrance, something a little sexier."

Near Dusk Jennifer Aniston Eau de Parfum, $55 for 2.9 oz.; kohls.com

(ANISTON) ADHEMAR SBURLATI/BROADIMAGE; (THEROUX) MOK/SPLASH NEWS; (MISS DIOR) JON PATERSON; (ANISTON & THEROUX) DANNY MOLOSHOK/REUTERS; (FLOWER) GETTY IMAGES

CONTRIBUTOR Lindsay Schallon

Unilever

This test paper demonstrates the Dove difference.

Soap can weaken proteins in your skin

Dove is different

This test paper represents proteins found in skin. After just 90 seconds of direct contact with soap, the proteins are weakened. With ¼ moisturizing cream and mild cleansers, Dove helps your skin maintain its own natural moisture.

Visit facebook.com/dove for exclusive offers.

©2015 Unilever

One Last Thing

Ashley Tisdale

The actress, 30, stars as a hairstylist in the new TBS series Clipped

Last obsession
I think the one thing I'm obsessed with is my wedding ring and my engagement ring [from musician Christopher French, 33]. It definitely feels fresh; it's still like, "Oh my God, I can't believe I'm married!" It's so cool.

Last time I was starstruck
I had Mario [Dedivanovic] do my makeup for the Tony Awards. He does Kim Kardashian, and I would see him on [Keeping Up with the Kardashians] all the time, so I was actually starstruck by my makeup artist.

Last time I went to the gym
I went to hot yoga two days ago. I feel like I'm actually working hard, but also the spiritual side of it takes me to a different place. It's really nice and calming.

Last thing I cooked
It's been kind of a whirlwind recently so I have not cooked in a while, but it de-stresses me. The last thing I probably cooked was "Slammin' Salmon," as my friends call it. It's a honey mustard salmon—it's so good! Even people that don't love salmon love it.

Last time I held a baby
I have a nephew who is about 1 year old, and I'm definitely an obsessed aunt. But I don't really [have baby fever]. If anything, it makes me go, "I am not ready for this!"

Reported by Gabrielle Olya

JUSTIN COIT/TRUNK ARCHIVE

People (ISSN 0093-7673) is published weekly, with a special issue and a combined issue in December, by Time Inc. Canada Post Publications Mail Agreement No. 40110178. Return undeliverable Canada addresses to: Postal Stn A, P.O. Box 4323, Toronto, ON, M5W 3H1. GST #888381621RT0001. Principal office: Time & Life Building, Rockefeller Center, New York, N.Y., 10020-1393. Periodicals postage paid at New York, N.Y., and at additional offices. ©2015 Time Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in whole or in part without written permission is prohibited. People Weekly, Star Tracks, Picks & Pans and Chatter are registered trademarks of Time Inc. Subscribers: If the Postal Service alerts us that your magazine is undeliverable, we have no further obligation unless we receive a corrected address within two years. Your bank may provide updates to the card information we have on file. You may opt-out of this service at any time. U.S. Subscriptions: $116.07 for one year. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to People, P.O. Box 30603, Tampa, Fla., 33630-0603. CUSTOMER SERVICE AND SUBSCRIPTIONS—For 24/7 service, please use our website: people.com/customerservice. You can also call 1-800-541-9000 or write to People at P.O. Box 60001, Tampa, Fla., 33660-0001. PRINTED IN U.S.A. Mailing List: We make a portion of our mailing list available to reputable firms. If you would prefer that we not include your name, please call or write us. ◆◆◆◆◆◆◆

MAKING TIRES FOR THE MOST IMPORTANT DELIVERIES.

Learn more at Goodyear.com

Goodyear.com ©2015 The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company. All rights reserved.

GOODYEAR.
MORE DRIVEN.

People®

Get the Latest On the Go!

READ YOUR FAVORITE STORIES FROM PEOPLE MAGAZINE ON THE GO — PLUS ENJOY EVEN MORE...

Exclusive Interviews

Celeb Photos

Behind-The-Scenes Scoop

GET IT NOW:
people.com/onthego

Available on:

© 2015 Time Inc. PEOPLE is a trademark of Time Inc., registered in the U.S. and other countries. iPad is a trademark of Apple Inc., registered in the U.S. and other countries. Kindle and Kindle Fire are trademarks of Amazon.com, Inc. or its affiliates. NOOK is a registered trademark of barnesandnoble.com llc or its affiliates. Google Play is a trademark of Google Inc. Windows 8 is a registered trademark of Microsoft Corporation in the United States and other countries.